I want to make it clear that the only thing that sustains us is love.

The road to Santiago

We dedicate this book to all those who feel nostalgia for a better world, to those who do not settle and want something more, to those who are eager to conquer, to those who know that they do not travel alone, that where they go, many more will go. To all those who have made their life an eternal pilgrimage towards eternal goals, to all those who want to know the truth, to those who suffer persecution for it, to those troubled by any physical, mental and spiritual ailment, to the pilgrims on their journey for life, in this end of the last times. To all the pastors and leaders who serve selflessly, heroes of the present and the future, who give their lives to defend the gospel of Our Lord Jesus Christ. So that their footprints serve as an example and inspire many to achieve eternal life and survive for centuries.

In gratitude to God our Lord, for life and love, for allowing us to travel the 14 Caminos de Santiago, and giving us part of a wisdom more valuable than gold, "Faith".

To my husband Mikaël, my best teacher, faithful companion and confidant, the love of my life! To our Gaultier-Nicolas & Morera-Rodríguez families, for transmitting to us a family culture to face suffering and hard work.

Preface

By Faith, I live as a pilgrim in the land of promise, as in a foreign land, living like Jabob and Isaac, heirs of the same promise. Hebrews 11.9

This book is dedicated to all pilgrims, on the way to the Father's eternal homeland, those who live the Faith, seeking the truth, loving and risking, willing to face challenges. To those who struggle to overcome themselves, who suffer, to saints, apostles and missionaries who suffer persecution in the shadows, resembling Christ, our Lord, to promote change, conversion, conquering a greater good "A sanctuary of Mercy", that benefits many.

We want this book to be a traveling companion for those who suffer from uprooting of any kind; deprived of emotional ties, far from their homeland, from their loved ones, on this pilgrimage journey through life. Especially for all of you pilgrims, who walk to the tomb of the apostle James, first martyr, Saint, favorite disciple of Jesus, to whom the evangelization of Spain was assigned. We want to spiritually accompany your pilgrimage, promoting prayer, guiding discernment, to understand the will of God, finding answers to the important concerns of your lives.

First of all, we want to give you a general overview of the current situation and the reality we face. Who is our enemy? Where is the problem? To know it is to overcome it. What are the threats, economic, social, moral, religious and cultural, that we have had to experience in this world?

generation?. We will provide tools that allow you to face the fight against a completely corrupt system.

Our mission, entrusted by Christ, in this second millennium, awaiting his second coming, to all the children of Mary, is to commit ourselves with all our energies to his service, it is to love without waiting, imitating the Master. It is the Holy Spirit who prompts us to announce the great works that God will do.

«Preaching the Gospel is rather a duty: And woe to me if I do not preach the Gospel! ». <sup>1</sup>

“Our struggle is not against enemies of flesh and blood but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age, against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places.” To overcome these spiritual forces of evil<sup>2</sup> we must walk in the power of the holy spirit. “I don't have silver or gold but I give you what I have, in the name of Jesus Christ, stand up and walk! ».

We need to strengthen ourselves to take on the great task that has been entrusted to us:

“Go into all the world and proclaim the gospel, these signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will cast out demons; they will speak new languages; they will take in their hands snakes; and if they drink something poisonous, it will not harm them;

~~They will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover. They went out to announce~~ the message everywhere; and the Lord helped them, and confirmed the message, accompanying it with miraculous signs.”

We must be the light and bear witness to life in Christ. Only a full life, capable of love in capital letters, will be a remedy for a generation contaminated by evil, victim of so many injustices, lies and oppression. Only the fresh air of the spirit will give the strength to face with courage and strength these last tests described in the book of the apocalypse of Saint John.

We want to be able to endure; rain, mud, bites, fatigue, heat, cold, hunger, sleep, blisters and wounds, along the path we have to walk.

The objective of this book is that reading it gives us wings! It trains us in the presence of God himself, to travel through it successfully, pilgrimaging with more devotion, faith and courage, thus attracting the presence of the Holy Spirit into our lives. , communities, to be able to persevere in our great commitment to achieve the kingdom and eternal life.

And as the song says:

“I hope that this trip affects our consciences with a message of hope and is a source of inspiration, so that together we contribute to the well-being of our nation, encouraged to change the subconscious, to bring health and do good to my people. Regardless of your social, economic or spiritual, I know you are special, I just want to help you discover your potential.

Committed to our Lord, family, truth and education, and love, to fight ignorance, laziness and depression, I want to help your transformation process, that is why I want you to be part of this mission:

“Leave a mark in the book of life this <sup>5</sup>, helping to transform generation.”

This book is written after a long experience of inner transformation, after traveling several roads to Santiago. Providence wanted to test me, facing a great shortage of resources, physical, psychic, spiritual, in order to heal and strengthen me, finally showing me the existence and power of the only true love, “JESUS CHRIST”, and a marriage like I would never have dreamed of. Now I can only live to be grateful for the graces that I pour out on this "Way to Santiago", the WAY of LOVE.

THE WAY OF SANTIAGO, MY RESCUE!

My rescue 14 years later,
where I find it, why!...
I was immersed in my life, entertained, distracted and lost, with my numb , soul fallen and divided, suddenly... an invitation, a destiny, a pilgrimage!, Santiago de Compostela, a vision, where the one who mattered least to me was you, Lord !.
And I thought, convinced, is this God of the Christians?
These are his fantasies, these are his own guarantees,

He traveled by bicycle along those roads, where they believe the Messiah is.
And while I was pedaling, without knowing it, his love was already flooding me, and I confidently asked myself; Is it real that God exists?...
What the world offered me was hard, cruel, and sad, and praying to heaven, I begged, if God exists, listen to me! Give me true love, Lord help me!

And in Santiago, I confessed, and his saving presence was very soon liberating...
Tears of repentance, listening to commandments, were your instrument, while in silence
I understood, how I wasted my time, I did not understand! Such a precious treasure had been hidden from my knowledge.

That unknown void had me faint, but it was just that desert!, the epicenter of my reunion.

Forgiving my sins, your Lord, you made me predestined, to teach me as a lover, from how many problems you had freed me from.

Your love and your call showed me the resurrected one, who first saw your cross, to then give meaning and that they could be health!

That year 2009 brought truths to me... I was able to see with the eyes of the soul, my needs, you came to cure all my illnesses, and thereby overcome all my insecurities, giving me, like true love, new opportunities.

That was the day when Jesus renewed my life, and I finally looked up!

It was you Lord, the one who did not give up on me, it was you who told me: wake up, you are confused! That's why today I only live, to give you my life, and proclaim to the whole world that YOU ARE THE LOVE OF MY LIFE !.

I love you Jesus.

My professional life has been developed in the world of investments. As an economist, I began advising family assets, making decisions in the midst of great uncertainties, supporting families to sustain their legacy. Today I promote projects, capable of responding to their call, that strengthen Faith, the family and their environment, their bonds, that heal wounds, authentically Christian communities, capable of surpassing themselves to imitate the master, follow in his footsteps, the narrow biblical path , to which we are all called. This is our responsibility: "To change the world, walking, living the gospel", as Christ indicated to us, in his great sending, before ascending to heaven: And he said to them, I send you: Go into all the world and preach the gospel. to every creature. He who believes and is baptized will be saved; He who does not believe will be condemned.

We want to respond to this call, asking for extraordinary graces to overcome the complex processes of change that await us at the end of the end times.

<sup>8</sup>“The end is near, be sensible and give yourselves to prayer. Have intense love among yourselves, because charity will cover a multitude of sins. Let each one put himself at the service of the other according to the graces received as good administrators.”

It is necessary to travel a long path, in the Holy Spirit, to establish the sociological, theological, psycho-pedagogical and spiritual foundations, capable of creating family and community, which inspires and promotes projects that produce permanent change in this generation and those to come. , surviving this paganized culture.

I believe in God? <sup>9</sup> Do I frequent the sacraments? Do I know their transformative power? Do I cultivate my training in the doctrine and dogmas of my Catholic faith; catechism, gospel, teaching and tradition, just as the first commandment and my baptismal commitment ask me? <sup>10</sup> “Faith Explained”. Leo J Trese

What is my calling? Where do I come from, my roots, my life story, my crosses, my moments of plenitude, desires of the soul? Where am I going, is it where God wants? What have my dreams taught me? difficulties that have strengthened me? What are my talents, my temperament, my fears and my wounds? What are my recurring sins, my vices, my weakness? How do I fight and seek help to get out of them? Do I know how to defeat them, how to heal them? What is the pace of my march, is it appropriate? What trials and temptations am I called to face? How am I training? As a married couple, single, or divorced, do I live accompanied by a Christian community?

What has been my evolution, my growth, what personal changes have I wanted to make these last five years and have not achieved? Changes in myself, in professional, marital, family, social areas, how should I prepare and improve to climb mountains higher, that sooner or later they will arrive? Do I know my limits? Do I face them frequently? Why do I need to experience difficulties to practice the virtues? What problems do I have to face in my daily life and what abilities train me? ?. Am I sure that what I do for my family and community is God's will?

The legacy of a family, a community, is its beliefs, its Faith, its values, its ties, customs, culture, shared experiences, experiences, its experience and training, preparation, its heritage, material goods, destined to do good, That's what differentiates them from others.

Am I sure that my work makes me a better person, a better father, husband, apostle, son, member of my community and that it benefits a just cause, in line with divine will?

Do I contribute directly or indirectly to greed, pride, lust, deception, idolatries, attachments, gluttony? Do I condemn the innocent, excuse the guilty, increase the punishment of the guilty, am I sure I know the truth, have I investigated, prayed, studied, consulted with sufficient depth? Serious sins are committed against the truth in all these cases of false 11 testimony.

Silence in the face of injustice is guilty and represents a serious offense against charity. When the shepherd's silence leads to serious error and there is a risk that the flock entrusted to him will be condemned, a mortal sin is committed. Are you afraid to tell the truth and speak now, and do you not fear the judgment of God when He asks you to account for the lost souls?

For an act to be morally good, three conditions must be met: 1st that the object chosen is good, 2nd that the intention is good, 3rd that the circumstances of the action are good. If any of these three factors are not met, we would be performing bad, sinful acts.

Sin generates<sup>13</sup> physical and mental illness, while virtue provides health and well-being. That is why perfection and holiness require renunciation and self-sacrifice in the practice of virtues.

We are tempted to test and demonstrate our fidelity in love. Temptation and difficulties in life are part of the divine plan, to help us grow and achieve our mission. Tests are presented to show where our weakness, sin and wounds are. These are presented to purify and strengthen us in those specific areas. When we do not overcome the tests with virtue, our vices are strengthened and more wounds are generated, increasing the tests much more and leaving us in a state of greater weakness and difficulty, these are the laws of nature. Because sin obscures reason, generating a parallel reality, which makes us unable to clearly discern the divine will, and what is best for us and those close to us.

Temptation is useful because it helps us practice virtues, they are allowed so that there is spiritual progress. God allows trials within<sup>14</sup> the plan of salvation for our spiritual perfection. Let us remember that in the end we will only be evaluated by love and virtue.

We are unique beings, with a specific mission, no one will be able to do what is our destiny, and we will have to give an account to the "Almighty". Our legacy is the ability we have to love God, and from there love ourselves and our neighbors, with the talents that he has given us.

After years of research into the practices and values that families and empires have sustained, going back centuries, the conclusion is that Christian theology, science and history coincide.

Thanks

I would like to thank God, our Lord, the Blessed Mother and Virgin Mary, my husband Mikael, for the time given to read, research and write this book, and those close to me, friends and guides who have helped me correct and refine it. There are all my loved ones, teachers, spiritual directors, priests, advisors, fellow apostolate, partners, clients, pilgrims, families who have accompanied and taught me along the way, to make it a reality.

I hope that this book touches and transforms many hearts, and helps you on your pilgrimage to Santiago and in life, to know, understand and deepen this great mission to which we have been called as Marian apostles, of the last times, and With his grace we can take many souls to heaven, to the new kingdom of Christ on earth, after his second coming, to achieve happiness and eternal rest.

Introduction

I. Why this book?

There are many books written about the path, such as internal travel, practical guides, describing the stages, hostels and monuments, history, advice for athletes and tourists, etc. However, there is very little or almost nothing written about how to prepare spiritually, to accompany the conversion process, the testimonies of the grace of the Holy Spirit that the pilgrim experiences, from a Christian perspective, origin and main reason for the pilgrimage to Santiago, one of the three most important pilgrimages of Catholic Christianity, after Rome and Tierra Santa.

We want to help the traveler deepen their experience of God and make sense of it. Unite history and science, as well as aspects of traditional Catholic-prophetic doctrine, preparing us to execute the change of life that will accompany our Holy pilgrimage to "Santiago de Compostela".

Give light and meaning to all the righteous souls who fight from love, facing inner transformation and healing, helping them to understand and face the current time, with a new perspective, from the biblical message, to accompany the inner transformation that will occur.

Before delving into the topic, it is important to understand the historical, moral-religious and biblical context of the path and its patron saint Santiago.

We also want to promote pilgrimage and help enrich it, basing it on the Christian sense, which is its substrate and greatest wealth. We invite all readers to begin this experience, with a spiritual preparation from our school over 40 days, asking for a spirit as preparation to later reach peregrino, the tomb of the apostle, in this school on telegram you will find a summary of everything the project of the "Sanctuary of <sup>17</sup> mercy that the Lord wants to give you.

Chapter

Origin of the Camino and analysis of the current context.

I. Historical origin and meaning of the Camino de Santiago

---

When thinking about the Camino de Santiago de Compostela as the great pilgrimage goal of the Christian West, we must take into account two dimensions that are involved and complement each other: the call of the path to go out in search of a new meaning for life, and the figure of the apostle Santiago, as a model of passionate faith in following Christ. "It seems to me that men should be led to the hope of finding the truth," says Saint Augustine. Truth that consists of the knowledge of man and God as the basis for discovering ourselves as human beings, and the reason for the mystery.

Throughout the centuries, the call of the path has been the goal to travel, paying tribute to the remains of Santiago, as well as worshipping his holy and brave life that ended in martyrdom! Our apostle, witness and best friend of Jesus, he will always be a model to follow.

Pilgrimage offers man the possibility of carrying this search to the end, because in it, the path is inseparable from the goal, as in life itself.

In the ~~Codex Calixtinus~~, after attributing the discovery of the apostle's tomb to Charlemagne, in its book V, known as "The Pilgrim's Guide to Santiago de Compostela", it captures the route taken by the king of the Franks, which creates a land itinerary to the present day. The authors of the Codex definitively linked the path to the Compostela sanctuary and the figure of Saint James the Apostle.

Many pilgrims find God on their pilgrimage, and all testify that no one returns from it the same as when they left. This vital experience leads many to a relentless search, to gradually assimilate the mystery and inner transformation<sup>18</sup> they have experienced. It is then time to introduce them to the person and life of James and Jesus.

Who was Santiago?

Santiago was born in the year 5 BC in Bethsaida, near the Jordan River, he is the son of Zebedee, Mt 4:21, of Salomé, followers of Jesus Mt 20:20, he has a brother John, also a disciple. Jesus gave them the nickname "Boanerges" sons of thunder (Mk 3:17).

James is one of the first to follow Jesus, when he was fishing in Lake Gennesaret with John his brother (Mk 1:19). Later he will be one of the twelve apostles (Mt 10:3). Together with his brother Juan and Simon Peter, he has a privileged relationship with Jesus. He is one of the witnesses of the resurrection of Jairus' daughter (Mk 5:21-43), of the transfiguration of Jesus (Lk 9) of the Garden of Olives (Mk 14:33) and also of the last sign performed by Jesus resurrected, when he appears in Lake Tiberias. In the Acts of the Apostles, he is praying while awaiting the coming of the Holy Spirit (Acts 1:13).

18 Arch-brotherhood of the Camino de Santiago

After Pentecost in 33 AD the apostles are sent to preach. Santiago crosses the Mediterranean Sea and disembarks in Iria Flavia ( Gallaecia), to evangelize Hispania (Spain and Portugal) after passing the Pillars of Hercules (strait of Gibraltar). During his stay of 7 or 8 years on the peninsula, Santiago made seven disciples , the " apostolic men." They are the ones who, after being ordained bishops in Rome by Saint Peter, followed him with evangelization, once Saint James returned to Jerusalem. On January 2, 40 AD, the Virgin Mary appears in mortal flesh before her assumption to Santiago the Greater and the 7 apostolic men in Caesaraugusta ( Zaragoza ), as a testimony of her visit she has left a jasper column "the Pillar." Column that continues to be venerated in the Basilica of Our Lady of Pilar. According to some New Testament apocryphal texts (the Dormition of Mary), when Mary sees her ascension approaching, the resurrected Jesus visits her. Her last earthly desire is to be surrounded by the apostles. Since everyone is evangelizing around the world, Jesus allows Mary, through miraculous appearances, to visit them. Between the years 41 and 44, shortly before his martyrdom, James was outside Jerusalem, when he was sentenced to death and beheaded by order of the king of Judea, Herod Agrippa I (Acts 12:2). Two of his disciples, Atanasio and Teodoro, carry his body across the Mediterranean Sea in a mythical stone boat entering the Camino de Santiago.

the Atlantic to Galicia and disembarking in Iria Flavia, the place of his first preaching where he was buried.

From the evangelical writings and other texts of a religious nature, the Jacobean route is the Way of the stars, the milky way that, as Charlemagne intuited, prophesied "the future connection between all peoples", uniting those disunited and disoriented kingdoms under one new order, whose light and guidance, beacon of an incipient Europe, would shine from distant Finisterre.

Various characteristics are attributed to Santiago, one of these is that of "the son of thunder", due to the shock that his preaching produced. Santiago is the Patron Saint of Spain, a favorite saint and apostle of Jesus, like Saint John and Saint Peter, he was the first of the disciples who suffered martyrdom in the year 42 AD

According to the writings, Santiago was the architect of the evangelization of Spain. The first is the "commentary on the Apocalypse" written by the Blessed of Liébana, and later in a hymn in which the apostolate is transformed into patronage:

Oh most worthy and holy apostle!, resplendent and golden head of Spain, most special defender and powerful patron.

The story of what happened cannot begin in the 9th century; It is necessary to go back to the moment when Santiago is beheaded and his body abandoned and, finally stolen and transferred by his disciples, in the middle of the night to the port of Joppa (today Jaffa) in Israel. To explain that he appears in a land so far from the Jerusalem where he was martyred; the miraculous journey, that boat without a crew arrives at the port of Iria, during the reign of Alfonso II the Chaste (749-842) the Camino de Santiago 26

Apostle manifested his presence in the most remote lands of the kingdom, so that the conviction of the Asturian-Galicians about his evangelizing work was reinforced and confirmed by the discovery of his tomb. In Antealtares, the tomb was found in the 820s during the reign of this monarch, when Teodomiro was bishop of Iria. A hermit, named Pelayo, noticed a strange luminosity on Mount Libredón, which was also seen a few days later by some shepherds from the nearby parish of San Félix de Solovio. This extraordinary event was communicated to the prelate who, after three days of fasting, set out to begin the search for the origin of this phenomenon. This led them to the discovery of a small sarcophagus that they did not hesitate to identify with the tomb of the apostle Santiago.

This news reached the king, who, coming with the nobles of his kingdom, began to venerate his remains and ordered that a small church, today the Cathedral of Santiago, be built on the site.

Saint James the Apostle: data on his presence in Spain

Three historical phenomena progressively emerge following the death of Saint James the Greater: 1. The narration of his martyrdom.

2. The preaching about the announcement of the gospel in Spain, that when distributing the geographical area that each of the twelve apostles would evangelize, the Iberian Peninsula fell to Santiago.

3. The transfer of Santiago's mortal remains from Jerusalem to Galicia in northwestern Spain.

To follow this path that Christ proposed to his twelve apostles, Christians created communities over the centuries to express their faith and encourage each other to live it, thus expressing the communion of the Church. To promote the participation of the laity in the propagation of the faith and bear witness to the world of the journey, since the beginning of the modern age, the devotees of the apostle Santiago have formed a brotherhood of prayer and mutual help, both material and spiritual. , with special reference to the pilgrims who come to venerate the Sepulcher of the apostle of the West, "the arch-confraternity of Santiago." Animated by that spirit, they propose to pilgrims and devotees of the Apostle an authentic commitment to spread their cult devotion to all men and women of our time. Focusing its action on the person of the apostle Santiago, disseminating his figure and legacy, extending his spirituality and promoting his cult.

The pilgrim teaches us the pilgrim meaning of human existence, a meaning that the Camino de Santiago helps us discover and deepen. As a disciple, the pilgrim, It brings us closer to an increasingly intimate knowledge of the teacher, Jesus Christ, to the personal relationship with him, to following his life and his teaching. As a witness, he exemplifies and encourages the evangelizing action of the entire Church, which is also the task of every Christian and every ecclesial organization.

We encourage you to collaborate with all Church institutions, and even with other institutions that promote and defend the path, and in particular the genuine Christian meaning of the pilgrimage. We recommend a growing and personal knowledge of Jesus, either directly promoting training actions or the Camino de Santiago.

spirituality and prayer, as well as encouraging others to participate and organize other pilgrimages to Compostela. Especially to the study of the Word of God and the realization of spiritual exercises and retreats or spirituality meetings, as well as to follow the life of the Master, from a charitable commitment to the needy, to all those who are psychologically or morally abused in their pilgrimage through life.

History and birth of the Camino de Santiago

The discovery of the Apostle's tomb provokes the Christianization of the ancient "Via del Finisterre", a route traditionally followed by many people of Celtic religion, to the end of the earth. The pilgrimages to Galicia are archaeologically proven, and it can be stated that the Celts from the year 1000 BC traveled throughout Europe to go to Finisterre celebrating their marriages and rites. This pre-Christian route becomes the Camino de Santiago.

Historically the "Camino de Santiago" was what today is called the "French Way", the main itinerary that, starting from Saint Jean Pied de Port, crosses the Pyrenees in Roncesvalles and travels through Spain until reaching the Galician city. Currently, all Christian pilgrimage routes of medieval origin are called "Camino de Santiago", which go to the tomb of the apostle, located in the cathedral of Santiago de Compostela (Galicia, Spain). Path where you will find fervor, repentance, hospitality, gastronomy, fraternity, art and culture, the spiritual roots of Europe.

The pilgrimage to Santiago began in the year 825 AD without any type of promotion by the church. We need the Camino de Santiago wait almost 200 years, when the Jacobean movement is consolidated, with many pilgrims coming from all Western European kingdoms to visit the tomb, in turn the civil authorities and individuals become involved by creating an infrastructure of accommodation and assistance.

Alfonso II, king of Asturias and his court, are considered the first pilgrims, in the year 825 AD, traveling what today is called the "primitive path", which starts from Oviedo, to the tomb in the year 825 AD. Shortly after, a community of monks and shortly after, the town of Locus Sancti Iacobi, today Santiago de Compostela, was born. In the 10th century, interest in visiting the tomb increased, with the first written testimonies from pilgrims from outside the peninsula. In 950 AD Gotescalco, French Bishop of Le Puy, made the pilgrimage; In 959 AD the abbot of Santa Cecilia de Montserrat did so and in 961 AD the count of Gotha and the archbishop of Reims did so. In 997 AD the Muslim leader Almanzor destroyed Compostela but did not manage to stop the pilgrimages.

In the 11th century, within a favorable geopolitical context in Western Europe, the order of Cluny supported the promotion of the Jacobean route, which was consolidated as a major pilgrimage and became one of the three pilgrimages of Christianity, with Rome and the Holy Land. Devotion to Santiago spread throughout Europe with pilgrims coming from France, Flanders, the German Empire, Italy and England. The wealth and power that the Compostela church acquired caused suspicion in Rome.

From there, the authorities establish rules to protect pilgrims and develop the pilgrimage. In 1114 AD, the council of León gave them freedom to circulate throughout the kingdom, on the Camino de Santiago 1122 AD, Pope Calixtus II, proclaims the Holy Jacobean year, every year in which the July 25th, the feast of Saint James, coincides with a Sunday. In 1123 AD the Lateran Council established excommunication at the European level for anyone who stole from them, in 1125 AD we have the first testimony of the use of the shell, the scallop, as an icon of pilgrims, in 1140 AD the first written guide was written on Liber Peregrinationis, as part of the work Liber Sancti Iacobi, which increases the development of the Way and its knowledge throughout Western Christianity and in 1170 AD the order of Santiago is created to protect the pilgrims. At the level of infrastructure, the church and the nobility are involved to found hospitals, take care of the roads, build bridges and create towns.

The 13th and 14th centuries can be considered the golden age of the road, the pilgrimage becomes very popular, beyond the borders of Western Europe, a mass of anonymous pilgrims go to Santiago and compare themselves with what the Muslims did to Mecca. From a pilgrimage of faith and devotion, it became a way of remission of sins or fulfillment of vows. Among the pilgrims we can find Francis of Assisi (1214), the King of Jerusalem Jean de Brienne (1224), King Sancho II of Portugal (1244), Princess Ingrid of Sweden (1270), Isabel of Portugal (1325) and the Duke of Lancaster (1386). In 1315, one of the first pilgrim brotherhoods was founded in Paris.

During the 15th century the notoriety of the Jacobean route was maintained but the profile of the pilgrim changed. On the one hand, chivalric pilgrimages became fashionable among European nobles, more than out of devotion, the objective was to discover foreign lands and demonstrate their bravery by participating in the Camino de Santiago.

in tournaments. On the other hand, there are "delegated pilgrimages", carried out by people in the name and representation of others, and finally "forced pilgrimages", which were imposed by courts as a civil penalty in the Netherlands, France and Germany.

Starting with the Jacobean Holy Year 1434 AD, the Castilian kings began the custom of visiting Compostela, to obtain forgiveness, in addition to establishing additional protections for pilgrims.

In the 16th century, the number of pilgrims who came to the apostle's tomb decreased. The people who carried out the religious pilgrimage practically disappeared, they were replaced by pilgrims who did so to serve a court sentence. Furthermore, the hospitality infrastructure extended along the road attracted many criminals, thugs, beggars and vagrants. The religious reform in Europe during the 16th century was another brake, because Protestant theology rejected the cult of saints.

The reformed territories prohibited the entry of pilgrims and the wars in which France was involved during the 16th century and the first half of the 17th demotivated the most fervent. Finally in 1579 AD, when Francis Drake (English Pirate) attacked Compostela, the bishop hid the relics of the apostle behind the main altar, where they remained away from danger, until their recovery in 1879 AD. C. Starting in the second half of the 17th century, with the religious wars, the improvement in security on the roads gradually increased the number of pilgrims, who made pilgrimages with more sincere reasons until the 18th century.

The end of the 18th century with the French Revolution of 1789 marks a new decline in pilgrimage. On a spiritual level, the secularization of society and the disappearance of most brotherhoods decreases interest in making a pilgrimage to Santiago.

Logistically, insecurity in France and European wars make the use of roads complicated. In the 18th century, fewer than 130 pilgrims arrived a year. The only positive factor is the discovery of the remains of the apostle in excavations around 1879. In the 20th century, the two world wars and the Spanish civil war made the pilgrimage almost disappear.

The first two modern associations for the promotion of the pilgrimage to Compostela appeared in Paris in 1950 and Estella in 1962. In 1958 the Parisian association developed the "pilgrim credential" with the aim of preventing walkers from being confused with criminals subject to the law of vagrants and thugs. The Catholic Church was also involved in relaunching the Jacobean pilgrimage. In 1954, the archbishop of Santiago published a pastoral letter to promote the pilgrimage to Santiago. In 1975, Pope Paul VI granted Compostela the right to celebrate jubilee years, so in 1976 the "pilgrim mass" was implemented. In perpetua, 1982, John Paul II traveled to Compostela to support the pilgrimage, being the first pope to make a pilgrimage to Santiago.

In 1989, the IV World Youth Day was held in Santiago . His successor Benedict XVI would also carry it out in 2010.<sup>176</sup> In 1985 Elías Valiña was elected coordinator of the parish priests.<sup>181</sup> Starting in the 1970s, an accommodation and support infrastructure similar to that which existed in the Middle Ages from Roncesvalles to Compostela was created . In 1985, Santiago de El Camino de Santiago Compostela is included in the list of World Heritage cities. In 1987, the Council of Europe classified the Camino de Santiago as the first European Cultural Itinerary. In 1993, the jubilee year, nearly 100,000 pilgrims arrived; the path is declared a World Heritage Site by UNESCO.

This achievement makes the modern Camino de Santiago known to the general public worldwide. The support infrastructure that was created, the availability of information and the ease of obtaining it, caused interest in carrying out the Jacobean pilgrimage to spread. Since before, the number of pilgrims had been growing until reaching more than 450,000 in 2023.

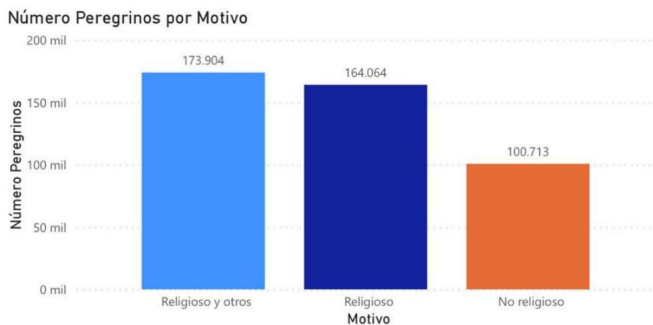

Today the Jacobean pilgrimage attracts men and women equally.<sup>16</sup> Foreigners slightly outnumber nationals and the majority undertake the journey within Spain, with a small percentage of those beginning their journey beyond the Pyrenees.<sup>16</sup> The motivation for the pilgrimage The greatest number of them continues to be of a spiritual nature, although the number of those who do it for recreational-sports reasons is important.<sup>16</sup> Within Christianity, it is accepted by part of Protestant theology that had rejected it since the 16th century and the broad The extension of Jacobean routes throughout Europe has given rise to a new type of pilgrimage consisting of traveling the route for a few days without the final objective of reaching Compostela.

Historical and current data on pilgrims

Kings, abbots and monks were the first pilgrims in the 9th and 10th centuries. The Asturian monarchs, French and German abbots and monks were the first to arrive from The Camino de Santiago 34 end of the 9th century. The sovereigns of Asturias, Alfonso II and Alfonso III, together with the Court of Oviedo, were the first known pilgrims of the 9th century. Alfonso III the Great made a pilgrimage in 872 and returned with Queen Jimena two years later, in 874, donating to the apostle a cross of gold and precious stones, the emblem of the Kingdom of Asturias.

I. Why does the global economic, health-cultural and religious context invite us to walk the Camino de Santiago?

The pilgrimage to holy and sacred places moves us to fully live the Christian meaning of our pilgrimage in life, today more than ever, we need to remember the transitory reality of this world. Furthermore, the holy places are enclaves with abundant graces, where God wants to manifest in an extraordinary way his mercy, power and a communion with him, which makes us participate more deeply in the mystery of his divine life. They are places where the Lord has wanted to bond in a special way with us, to train us in our duties.

In a decadent society, pilgrimage comes like the burning fire that ignites us, that heals our wounds, purifies us, to ignite us, strengthen us, return to our roots, and understand our history. In this very hostile environment, it fills us with its power, gifts, virtues and graces, it is a place of encounter with the Holy Spirit, who is present and provides us with what is necessary to face any obstacle, no matter how difficult it may seem, "the path." ", is a heaven on earth.

The Lord invites us to walk, like the paralyzed person: get up and walk, dare to change! It is time to start again, answering the call, accepting the risk to move forward. The journey is as important as the destination.

When the world seems to be falling apart, the solution is on the path, to unite with Christ, only with him can we change!

“If you want to change the world, CHANGE yourself first, WALK Pilgrim.”

«Look, watch: for you do not know the moment. Mt 13.

This is the time to prepare for a great combat, “the end of the end times”, facing challenges that humanity has never known.

The Lord exhorts us, “stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour.” Mt 24, the saints also warn us:

“The number of demons active throughout the world is greater than that of all the people who have lived since Adam. I don't have a minute of free time, everything is spent freeing my brothers from the clutches of satan! Saint Padre Pio.

“The martyrs of this moment will be above all those of previous times, because those who live in the time of the antichrist will go out to fight with Satan himself in person.”

Saint Cyril of Jerusalem.

We are in the historical moment predicted by the prophet Daniel, in which the church must suffer its greatest and last agony, just like its teacher. That is why our mission is to prepare for the great combat by making a pilgrimage to Santiago.

If you love you must leave, leave everything and trust, aren't we Catholics the ones who must set an example and be a light for the world? “Sacrificing the essential for money, we forget what main", it doesn't matter what you leave behind, you will come back fired up!

A long journey begins with one step! This is how the practice of virtue begins, you have to renounce what you want, what you want, trust despite your doubts and fears about your physical and mental capacity, and launch yourself into practicing. a beggar's spirit, if you want to cultivate what lasts. The graces that await you are countless, because God blesses the pilgrim in an extraordinary way... You will live a great adventure, during and once you finish, you will find all the answers to your questions. The Lord will surprise you with his infinite love!

Current socio-economic and health environment

We are facing a global crisis of disproportionate magnitudes, not only socio-economic, moral, political, health and religious, but transhumanism threatens the end of the human race as we know it, all of which defines the end of an era.

The indebtedness of the states, the impoverishment of the population, moral decadence, the lack and corruption of the government in the institutions of most disciplines, the loss of our culture, roots and values, characterize the current time.

DEATH STATISTICS IN GERMANY PERIOD 2016-2022

Finally, the conflict in the Middle East, with a threat of possible global escalation in November 2023.

What lies at the root of the problem?

With the 2020 pandemic, the world has entered a crisis of apocalyptic proportions, thousands of sick people, many others lost their jobs and will never get them back, we have seen fires, destruction, massive demonstrations, because people did not have enough to eat or live, misery and illness.

We have seen the demonstrations of farmers and ranchers collapsing France and Spain, defending themselves against the policies

PAC exslavers, a corrupt media and political class.

The ILO, an international labor organization, reported that half of the world's workforce, 3.3 billion individuals and jobs, were at risk.

The world will never be the same again. For the first time in three centuries, we have no way to replace our economic system that is on its deathbed. Capitalism has reached the limit of its growth, with debts and unfunded liabilities of up to 350% of global GDP, this gives us a rough idea of what the world will have to deal with. The most likely scenario is a violent<sup>29</sup> explosion, a deflationary depression of magnitudes never seen before. Since covid-19 began, fiscal and monetary stimulus has accounted for 26% of global GDP.

Covid-19 was a catalyst, the real crisis began in August 2019, to understand its origin we must understand the forces that have promoted it.

A transindustrial economy, transhumanism. We are 31 speaking of fundamental changes in the relationship between human beings and automation on a massive and planetary scale. The Key elements of this change are: distance education, robotics, artificial intelligence, a virtual world that does not require travel, digital currencies controlled by governments and a long etcetera. Covid-19 has been a blow to incorporate this transindustrial era, bankrupt the middle classes and readjust the planetary system.

Vaccination has nothing to<sup>32</sup> do with health, the objective is to replace this economic system with a digital transaction system, combined with a digital identification and electronic tracking system. Install operating systems in our bodies and use viruses (transhumanism), to order an initial installation, followed by regular updates, vaccine doses, injectable nanotechnology, brain machine interface, being able to enjoy legal protection and laws that support them. Experimenting and violating all national and international civil and criminal laws, specifically the Nuremberg code, to put an end to currencies as they were we know.

What is the global economic reset, the 2030 Agenda?

The reset is advancing as a solution to a crisis that broke out in 2008, which not only has not disappeared, but is in its terminal phase, after a decade of injection and printing of money by central banks, today we are faced with an unsustainable bubble! This reset is an instrument, to create a globalist structure, that serves the interests of an elite, a global government, with centralized power that lasts for centuries. Their objective is obvious, to influence and misinform, to keep the population illiterate, to scare the population with shortages, illness, internal conflict, through breaks in supply chains, introducing immunity passports and martial law. Working towards sustainable development objectives that have nothing to do with the reality they propose.<sup>33</sup>

Like any psychosis, they need to punish the guilty, the deniers, it is a gigantic media campaign aimed at confusing citizens, with the approval of the authorities to give an outlet to hatred. A global psychological war, possible thanks to new information and communication technologies whose owners are the great oligarchs. The psychological combat of brainwashing that we are suffering are their weapons of war to implement this global society. This is evident in the 2030 agenda, a massive universal propaganda campaign aimed at inspiring the planet.

Their repetitive slogans range from vaccination campaigns to the consumption of synthetic meat.

These are its 17 published objectives: End of poverty, zero hunger, health and well-being quality education, gender equality, clean water, affordable and non-polluting energy, decent work and economic growth, industry innovation, reduction of inequalities, cities and communities , sustainable, responsible production and consumption action for the climate underwater life, ecosystem life, peace, justice and solid institutions alliances to achieve the objectives.

Of course, this campaign is full of ideas aimed at thinking that it is about the construction of a paradise on earth, so that we cannot resist and participate in the construction of this new world order, as the solution for a humanity in constant economic, pandemic, climate and political crisis.

Taking a close look at the first three objectives; end of poverty, hunger, zero health and well-being. They have a common denominator: the reduction of demographics through eugenics, abortion, birth control and the death of the population with vaccines, as Bill Gates himself already announced in 2010, in his Ted talk entitled "innovating at zero" stated that to stop climate change and eradicate poverty, it is essential to reduce global population growth to zero.<sup>34</sup>

Regarding objectives twelve and fifteen, of production, responsible consumption and life of terrestrial ecosystems. The campaign aims to convince us that we must change our diet, argued by climate change, and demands that rich nations be the first to set an example in<sup>35</sup>, abandoning meat and consuming it synthetically. Objective thirteen; of climate action, is connected to the campaign on climate change, a theory that farmed animals have a great cost to the environment, so the objective of the sacrifice of eliminating meat from our diet, is to avoid a climate disaster, however, representatives of the meat sector in the United States and Europe argue that the emission of gases supposedly caused by cows is a fallacy of the climate industry contrary to what the Davos forum says. Regarding the point of affordable and non-polluting energy, called clean energy, in 2020, 900 scientists signed a manifesto stating that climate changes are due to a natural<sup>41</sup> process of the planet, denying what the lobbies say.

Regarding strategic alliances, objective seventeen, they clearly explain that they are working to influence the policies of governments around the planet so that they accept their technological ideas. Influencers financed by large philanthropists are responsible for pressuring citizens to change consumer behavior, power and management structures. In the Davos 2021 Switzerland report, it was clearly concluded that the pandemic had accelerated the 2030 agenda. In this new system of equitable capitalism, businessmen will gradually lose control of their companies in favor of a co-governance in which the global state and its partners, the large investment funds, will participate, which will be the only ones that will be able to invest in businesses. of the future, a techno-feudalism very similar to that implemented in China, it is no coincidence that the guest of honor of the Economic Forum world was the president of China, a great ally of the 2030 agenda.

Regarding the objective of peace, justice and solid institutions, all public relations are destined to achieve a global monopoly based on strategic alliances. This new global elite shares the same bible as the president and founder of the Davos forum, who has been talking about the fourth industrial revolution for years. Reading his words in Davos: "The fourth industrial revolution does not only consist of connected intelligent machines and systems, its scope is broader, ranging from genetic sequencing, to nanotechnology and renewable energy, to quantum computing, it is the fusion of technologies and their interaction, dominating the physical, the digital and the biological."

The technology of so-called messenger RNA vaccines is an example of this technological innovation.

The most serious thing about the new world order: <sup>42</sup> Transhumanism. 43

We are facing the most dizzying changes of the last three hundred and fifty years, we face threats that cry out to heaven, an educational, legal, health, moral, economic tyranny and loss of freedoms, a direct attack on the subsistence of the human race, with arrival of transhumanism.

The truth, <sup>and</sup> the truth you will set you free Jn 8.31

The plot of thousands of robots taking over the world is recurring in science fiction films. But what if you were that robot? What would you think if the world was inhabited by beings with extraordinary qualities and more intelligent and faster than anyone else? Artificial intelligence makes it possible. This is what the advertising that sells it to us tells it: they insert a microchip into your mind that will allow you to pay for restaurants, open the door to your house without a key, drive your car, go to the supermarket you like, cure diseases and a long etcetera.

<sup>44</sup>Transhumanism is defined as a cultural, intellectual and scientific current that affirms the moral duty to improve cognitive physical abilities and the human species in general, applying new technologies, with the aim of eliminating unnecessary aspects of the human condition, such as suffering, illness, aging and death. The goal is to reach the posthuman. It brings together scientists from different areas, artificial intelligence, neurology, nanotechnology. What are the differences between a transhuman and a posthuman? In that the first is the means to reach the second, a human whose nature is changed, applying technology to prevent him from dying, it could be a computer, a cybor, with capabilities superior to current humans.

Some of the means they use to carry it out, among others, as explained:

  3. Moral improvement with chemical substances, to reduce aggressiveness.
  4. Emotional improvement: Modulate love, with oxytocin, pheromones, to strengthen bonds. We clearly see the disastrous health consequences of hypermedication.
  5. Postmortem or premortem cryogenization (cryoeuthanasia) and resuscitation of patients in cryogenic suspension. They want to resurrect people from the dead: There are human clinics.
  6. Superintelligent machines: Cyborgs, organisms <sup>47</sup> cybernetic, not necessarily human.

Information must help us make good decisions, since not everything is as it seems. We must see beyond, so that no one deceives us. What is really happening?

They explain that it is the only solution, the transhumants are the ones who will live in the "Smart Cities". The idea of these cities is that everything is connected<sup>51</sup>, that it is digital, full of antennas, for which 5G technology is necessary. They are cities electronically and chemically prepared to connect man to machine, controlled by artificial intelligence, with continuous monitoring of our physical and mental health, for the transformation of synthetic biology, part of the 2030 agenda.<sup>52</sup>

As basic elements of this project we have the internet of things and bodies, AI, virtual reality, blockchain, cloud computing and synthetic biology.

They are the cities of the future programmed in the 2030 agenda, <sup>54</sup>, cities that prepare transhumanism. Some of the elements they are using to carry it out are: 55

1. 5G technology reported<sup>56</sup> worldwide, electromagnetic radiation that reaches levels that we have never experienced before on our planet.
2. Successive vaccinations: There are patents in the USA, with an interest in vaccinating and that no one pays for the negative consequences. The CDC, Centers for Disease Control, in the USA, has many patents, for each vaccine they inject they receive money. These vaccines are generating serious side effects and mainly weakening our immune system. Its components are highly toxic, causing many of the symptoms that <sup>58</sup>

These are cytotoxic, they generate oxidative stress, inflammation, they stick to proteins, they are integrated into biology, they are emitters, sensors and receptors, they are programmable. ### III. Prophetic biblical message: End End times.

In this chapter we have considered addressing the biblical-prophetic message of the end of the last times. The reason for including it in this book dedicated to the pilgrim has to do with the fact that for us Catholics, the pilgrimage to the tomb of Santiago refers us to the passing condition of our existence, it symbolizes our pilgrimage through life. This journey helps us to spiritually experience the events that we will experience, the same trials and graces that we will go through in our own lives. It prepares us to understand the meaning and importance of living our present, detached from everything, knowing that here in this world we are passing through, towards a definitive eternal homeland that awaits us. That today is temporary, that is why we must give everything a relative importance, and invest in seeking eternal goods, God and his will and his works of mercy, because our true home is in the heart of the Father and nothing earthly can ever fill our heart.

"Seek the goods above.

Col 3, 1-5"

"Take heed and guard against all covetousness, for even in abundance, a man's life is not secured by his possessions.

<sup>65</sup>MIT. Global risk assessment report: <https://www.technologyreview.es/s/10323/estos-son-los-peores-riesgos-de-la-biologia-sintetica-para-la-humanidad>

Foolish! This very night they will claim your soul; The things that you have accumulated, to whom will they be? Such is the case of the one who stores up wealth for himself and does not enrich himself for God. Lk 12, 13"

Jesus condemns the fact that we become slaves to the goods of the earth, worrying excessively about work and worldly aspects. He wants us to be owners of these goods, giving them the importance they deserve.

That is why incorporating the biblical-prophetic message invites us to understand the times we live in, from a divine perspective, because only from Faith will it be possible to illuminate and help understand the events that are happening today.

We want to give a summary of the global analysis, with sources from Catholic doctrine, that can form, prepare and deepen the scriptures, about the message for the end of the last times. Placing ourselves in possible future scenarios will help us not lose hope, strengthen ourselves physically, mentally and spiritually for the toughest tests.

The book especially wants to awaken and strengthen a pilgrim spirit, at this time, because as the scriptures point out, the faithful church of the end will be very small, poor and persecuted, it will be a pilgrim! It will survive in catacombs, "a small remnant", He will flee to the desert and witness the second coming of Christ. That is why this detachment, uprooting, abandonment to the divine will and life in the spirit, typical of the pilgrim, is the path we must follow. We intend to be an instrument that encourages the church today more than ever to embark on the path.

Why is it so important to study and know biblical prophecies?

“It is a duty to study biblical prophecies, to be prepared for the events that will come”

Ap1, 1-3.

The apocalypse, the last book of the Bible, begins with a beatitude for those who read and keep this book, it is incredible that it is not read or taught, being so important and even more so in our time. It begins with a message for whoever reads it, it is necessary to know it and keep it, since what is going to happen.

“Blessed are those who read and keep the words of this prophecy and keep what is written in it, because the time is near.” Ap, 1

God wants to reveal what is going to happen to his prophets so as not to have uncertainty about future events, now that we are going to live in the darkest period of humanity, this will serve as a lamp for us II Peter I, 19.

Where does Jesus specify what has to happen in the sacred scriptures, about the time we will live before his second coming? What does the word of God want to convey to us about the end of the last times?

“Do not despise prophecies, it is a biblical command.” I Thes 5.

If you see a cloud, you know what happens, if you know how to explore the sky, how can you not explore this time? This is what the Lord says to the The Camino

Pharisees who were responsible for teaching the prophecies to the people, that is why they did not understand the first coming of Christ.

“We will not understand this time, if we do not explore the prophecies.”

Luke 12, 54.

“The Lord does nothing without revealing his secret to the Prophets”

Amos 3.7

The sources about the end of the last times, what refers to the last things, are found in the Old Testament in the books of "the prophets", in the eschatology of the New Testament", and in the book of the "apocalypse of Saint John ", which we will explain throughout this chapter.

What does “end of this age” mean, as Matthew 24.3 explains? It does not refer to the end of the world, but to the end of a structure of human society. The Bible teaches that from that moment<sup>66</sup> on evildoers will be “cut off”, so that good people can enjoy their life on earth (Psalm 37), this destruction will occur during the “great tribulation”, which will culminate in the war of armageddon.<sup>67</sup>

When will the end be? Jesus said: “Regarding that day and hour no one knows, neither the angels of heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father” and in turn added that the end<sup>68</sup> would come in a certain way.

~~unexpected~~, at a time they don't think about. Although we cannot know the exact day and hour, Jesus spoke of a series of events that would serve as a "sign" to identify the period of time that would lead to the end.<sup>69</sup>

And although it did not reveal the day or the hour, it explains that;
"The Lord does nothing without revealing his secret to the Prophets."
Amos 3.7

The Bible refers to this period as "the time of the end," "the times of the end," and "the last days."<sup>71</sup>

Will anything remain standing after the end? Yes, the earth will remain in its place, since the Bible says that "it will not be shaken forever, nor forever" (Psalm 104:5). Furthermore, he promises that it will be inhabited: "the righteous themselves will possess the land and reside on it forever" (Psalm 37:29). God will ensure that the conditions proposed at the beginning of creation are met: the earth will be a paradise, there will be security and prosperity, everyone will have a useful and rewarding job, there will be no diseases or old age.

What does prophecy mean and who are the prophets in the Bible? Prophets are men who have been inspired by God, with reliable evidence about the events will occur in the future.

The classical prophets of Israel were prophets of crisis and hope. The two great crises of the people of Israel that the Bible tells us were announced and suffered by them: the Assyrian crisis that ended with the destruction of Samaria in 722 BC, and the great Babylonian crisis that ended with the destruction of Jerusalem and the mass deportation of 586 BC. These two great crises did not arise spontaneously, but rather they were brewing like the path of a long day towards night. When it was still day, these prophets denounced injustice, false hopes, of peace and well-being. These words of denunciation were accompanied by announcements that predicted a great crisis, as they saw and warned that the people of Israel were moving towards a situation of disintegration of their identity. But his words did not remain a denunciation and announcement of a crisis, but also words of hope that showed the keys to the survival of the people of Israel beyond these crises, especially the Babylonian one that could have erased Israel from the map. This hope was the light that illuminated those nights that could have ended their existence, and yet they were preserved, thanks to being warned, they were able to protect themselves. Does it sound familiar to us?

At first reading it might seem that these crises came from abroad and were nothing more than a consequence of the threats from the empires in the area and their expansionist policy, which dragged down Israel, as well as other small towns. But what the prophets denounce was Israel's own attitude of not having the courage or strength to know how to preserve its identity, in The Camino de Santiago 62 amidst these historical vicissitudes, very similar to what we are experiencing in our time.

The false hope generated by a cult without justice was not what God expected of his people. While all this was happening, the worship in the sanctuaries and in the temple of Jerusalem became more and more false.

“My Temple is a place of prayer and you have turned it into a den of bandits!” Lk 19.45

The prophets denounce and say that God does not want a cult that is not accompanied by justice. None of them deny<sup>74</sup> the cult itself, but rather they try to prevent Israel from falling into the deification of what is not God, since this would be going against the first commandment. And when worship is not accompanied by justice and truth, by love for one's neighbor, it is because the God of law and life has been replaced by something other than him.

Many lived confident in precisely the opposite, believing they were in a time of prosperity that the Lord was going to bless by manifesting himself in a marvelous way. In this atmosphere of euphoria they waited for the "day of the Lord" which would be a manifestation before all nations that Israel was God's chosen people (Am 5:18-20). generating a false hope and that is why he ironically warns them that this “day of the Lord”, which they long for, will come in the form of punishment (5:18).

Hosea, in line with Amos, explains that the way of relating to God is not the worship that they practice in multiplicity.

<sup>74</sup> (Am 4,4-5; 5,18-27; Is 1,10-20; 58,1-12; Hos 8,11-14;)

of prayers and sanctuaries<sup>75</sup> when they are therefore outside the loyalty and knowledge of God (6,6), that is, outside the Law given by God. This loyalty and this knowledge is the only thing that can ensure human relationships based on justice. Isaiah speaks of “useless offerings” (1:13) that are a burden for God because the hands of those who offer them are “full of blood” (1:15), and God does not want anything from those hands (1:12) .

The root of hope

These prophets are aware that this false hope fosters an empty cult, and deepens the crisis, because contrary to what they thought, the perception of God's presence among his people will be obscured. The crisis would bring with it a lack of God for many people, who would feel their hope frustrated by the different events that would appear until the final destruction of Samaria, and that is when they would ask themselves, where is our God, the one who took us out of Egypt? Has he abandoned us?

In the midst of these events, prophets are first of all bearers of an active hope from God. They show a hope that comes from the same God whose word they feel they are bearers of. This hope is based on divine mercy, in the face of a repentant people, Israel is a small people and will not be able to survive without the mercy of the God who took them out of Egypt and providentially guided them in the desert.

It is necessary to emphasize the effort of the prophets, so that Israel turns towards God, and that is why, together with this active hope of God, they exhort a receptive hope that accepts the God of life. It is about seeking God where he is found and moving away from the places and attitudes where God is not. And where is God in these moments of crisis? They are in those who live and witness the faith, who fulfill the commandments, who do charity, who bear fruit for the kingdom, in those who seek goodness, justice, in those who help the oppressed:

«Stop doing evil, learn to do good. Seek justice, help the oppressed...”
(Is 1,16-17)

Seventh Millennium: Six thousand years of world history

According to Jewish tradition, collected in the Talamud, maintained in the early church and in the sacred scriptures, the world lasted two thousand years before Abraham, two thousand from Abraham to Christ (year 0) and two thousand until its destruction and second coming, that is, the six thousand years of the world, until the year 2033, death of Christ.

Just as God made the world in six days, as Psalm 90 points out, “a thousand years are like one day,” is repeated in Peter II 3-8.

The first two thousand years, adding the years that each patriarch lived until he had a successor, symbolic (Gen 5-3, 32), give us until the birth of Abraham, the other two thousand until the death of Christ in 33 AD, and two thousand years from 33 AD, give us 2033 AD, for the coming of Christ and the end of this era.

Even in the great pyramid, one of the seven wonders of the world, the work of Pharaoh Cheops (2600 BC), it reflects in the structure of its interior corridors, the six thousand years from four thousand BC, with great symbology.

Based on this we can assure that from 2030 we would live in the seventh millennium and as the gospel says, "on the seventh day the Lord rests." Considering that a thousand years are one day biblically speaking, we too will rest.

In addition to biblical sources, the Lord gives more concrete revelations through his saints and Marian apparitions approved in the church. We will quote some of these important prophecies about the end.

The prophecy of Saint Francis of Assisi, with nihil obstat and imprimatur (official moral and doctrinal approval, made by a censor of the Catholic Church.

"Very few Christians will follow the true pope, the demons will have unusual power."

"A man not canonically elected will rise to the pontificate, with his cunning he will lead many into error." 77

"You will see signs and you will not recognize them, those will be the days when men dress like women." Saint Vincent Ferrer.

It refers to the proliferation of homosexuality, such as the current moment.

The Prophecy of the Popes of Saint Malachy of Armagh, states<sup>78</sup> 112 mottos of Popes, and explains that until the end only two popes remain: "Gloria Olivae" and "Pedro Romano", the Pope who will accompany the church in great tribulations.

Gloria Olivae, is Benedict XVI, the penultimate pope before the coming of the Lord, by Gloria Olivae, is Benedict's motto, since the olive tree is the symbol of the order of Saint Benedict, the Pope would be Benedictine or would be called Benedict. And it seems that Bergoglio does not have a papal motto on that list, since the next one is Peter Romano, the holy pope so often prophesied, who will guide his flock in the midst of many tribulations and who would see the parousia.

John XXIII there are three popes left, the first, Paul VI, John Paul I, we do not know if he considers it why he only stayed 33 days, the second, John Paul II, the third, Benedict XVI.

Hypocrites, you know how to distinguish the appearance of heaven, and you cannot interpret the signs of the times! An evil and adulterous generation that demands a sign, no sign will be given other than that of the prophet Jonas. Mt 16. 1-4 (Lk 12-56)

Below we will present the revelations that confirm this statement:

First of all the resurgence of Israel.

We are the generation where the prophecy is fulfilled that Israel will be returned its land, this occurs as a result of its independence in 1948, after almost 2000 years of exile of the chosen people. Israel is the prophetic clock, because it is the people of God, what happens to it will affect all of humanity. The Lord explains to us that we are the generation of the fig tree, the great tribulation of the apocalypse and the events that will precede it in (Mt 24, LC21, <sup>85</sup> Mt 13) through the parable of the fig tree (Mt 24, Lk 21, Mc 13) . Why are the people of Israel the fig tree in the Bible? We have the explanation in:

"Judah and Israel dwelt in security, each under his vine and under his fig tree, from Dan to Beersheba, all the days of Solomon" 1. Rom 5

We see that Judah is the vine and Israel is the fig tree. The fig tree in the Bible represents the people of Israel. The disciples <sup>86</sup>

extended/

<sup>86</sup> (1 Kings 5,5; Jr 8,13; Jr 24,1-10; Jr 29,17; Hos 9,10; Mt 21,19; Mk 11,21; Mt 24,32; Mk 13,28; Lk 21,29-30)

They ask, while sitting on the Mount of Olives: "Tell us when this will happen, and what will be the sign of your coming," Jesus answers them:

"From the fig tree learn this similarity, when its branches become tender, and its leaves sprout, you know that summer is near. So you also, when you see all this, know that it is near, at the doors. Truly I tell you, that generation will not pass away until all this happens." Mt 24,32-34

This first sprout of the fig tree is the creation of the state of Israel as a nation, "in a single day." In May 1948, the Babylonian captivity ended.

"You will be torn from the ground where you are going to enter to take possession. Yahweh will scatter you among all the peoples, from one end of the earth to the other, and there you will serve other gods, of wood and stone, unknown to you and your fathers.

Dt 28,63-64

"A great calamity will come upon this land and great wrath against this people, they will fall by the sword and will be taken captive among all nations and Jerusalem will be inhabited by strange people until the times of the nations are fulfilled."

Lk 21, 32 and 24)

"Who heard such? Who saw such a thing? Is a country given birth in a single day? Or is a town born all at once? well: she was in pain and Zion gave birth to her children."

Is 66.8

“I will make them one nation in this land, in the mountains of Israel, and one king will be king over them all; They will not again form two nations, nor will they again be divided into two kingdoms.”
Ez 37,21-22.

The people of Israel were dispersed among all the nations, and in a single day, just as Isaiah prophesied, in the independence of Israel, the time was fulfilled. The second outbreak is the recovery of Jerusalem, “the holy city,” in June 1967.

“Then the sanctuary will be reclaimed.” Dan 8-14

Israel is the “clock of God”, the events of all humanity, it determines the events of all peoples, its history marks chronologically for the world, the divine plan of salvation. Therefore, the end of the end times begins, with the reconstruction of the state of Israel, <sup>87</sup>predicted by Ezekiel and Isaiah. This end of the last times is the moment prior to the second coming of Jesus.<sup>88</sup>

In Psalm 90, the length of a generation is described as being between 70 and 80 years.

“The years of our life are about seventy, or eighty, if we are strong”
(Ps 90:10).

<sup>87</sup> (Dn 9,24; Is 44,7-9; Is 46,9-10; Am 3,6-7)

According to this, the generation of 1948 will be the one that will experience the second coming, until 2028.

Secondly, we are in the seventh millennium.

It is the millennium of rest of the second coming: The 6000 years of the world, according to the ancient Jewish tradition, collected in the Talmud, also maintained by the early Christian church in 90

The world will last 2000 years until Abraham, 2000 from Abraham to Christ and 2000 from Christ until his destruction, is the interpretation of the Bible. That God made the world in six days and Psalm 89.4 tells us "1000 years in his eyes are like one day," and is repeated in II Peter 3-8. The first 2000 years are symbolic, without a doubt, but according to the Bible, if we add the years that each patriarch lived until they had a successor, they give us the birth of Abraham. 1941 years exactly (2000 lunar years) and another 2000 lunar years until the death of Christ, which is the year 33, the 2000 years from the year 33 would take us to 2033 for the end of the Christian era, which coincides with other calculations and prophecies as we will see shortly.

Thirdly, the great sign, the Marian century: 93

It is one of the most important signs, the presence and message of the Most Holy Mary in so many apparitions, the greatest in the history of humanity, with an increase in her presence in the world. With the important role and mission as mother of God.

"Truly, I tell you: there is no one on earth, nor in heaven, nor in the angelic powers, who has been given such great authority and power as your Blessed Mother after my power and authority, for I am the Alpha and the Omega. Through the virginal heart of Mary my redemptive plan began and it will be again through this holy heart that I will complete my plan of salvation."<sup>94</sup>

She is mediator and advocate of all graces, just as she participated in the beginning of the work with the redeemer, she will participate in the salvation of humanity.

This phenomenon allows us to assume that it is a special mercy of God towards men, sent to us by his mother, to wake us up from spiritual torpor, warning us of the seriousness of the moment in which we live. As a sign that the great apostasy is accelerating in Christian countries, the Virgin invites us <sup>96</sup> to do penance, prayer and fasting, to protect and defend ourselves from demons and hell, just like on Holy Saturday, she remained faithful to her son, also in this century, wants to remind us of the need and importance of the signs of the times, to awaken our hope, with countless healings and apparitions, proving God's power over demons. replacing Christ with the esoteric, occult, with the new age, the proliferation of Satanism to levels never seen before. Abortion, euthanasia, divorce, adultery, the promotion of marital infidelity, sexuality outside of marriage, homosexuality, genetic manipulation, the promotion of atheism, the new world order that replaces a Christian social order. The apostasy from the truth, the ruling lie, whose father is satan, especially penetrating the church, tearing apart Christianity. All this will bring the judgment of the nations and the purification of humanity to reach the manifestation of Christ.

Pride and the author of all errors, Lucifer is the founder of all heresies, who tries to persuade men to be happy with worldly means. Naturalism, liberalism, rationalism, modernism, materialism, individualism, communism, esotericism have Lucifer as their only father, the worship of man, in which you will be like gods!

This apostasy and lack of faith has gained strength and has been denounced by the Virgin in La Salette, in France in 1846:

“Many chiefs and leaders of my people have abandoned prayer and penance, the devil has obscured their intelligence. God will allow the ancient serpent to place divisions between sovereigns, societies and families.

Many abandoned the faith, the number of priests who separated from the true religion will be great, Lucifer with a large number of demons will be unleashed from hell, they will abolish the faith little by little. Regarding the negative signs that the scriptures indicate to us, we can point out by definition a continuous war, two of them global, and others, in Korea, Vietnam, Malvinas, Iraq, Iran, Russia, Hezegobina, Russia; China, Romania, Persian Gulf, and a long etcetera. Communist revolutions around the world, and enough technology to make humanity disappear. Needless to say, there is the danger of the past attack by Hamas against Israel, considered by many to be the worst that the country has suffered since its creation in 2023 and its possible consequences of global escalation, as happened with World War I, to a possible third world war.

~~Seventhly, the Masonic spirit, the proliferation of Satanism, which affects the church.~~

Fifteen Popes who have denounced Freemasonry since 1738. Concerned Clement XII warns of possible infiltration, Benedict Fifteen encyclicals and two apostolic constitutions warn of the danger.

Freemasonry is the Church of Satan and its religion is the "New Age". Infiltrated<sup>101</sup> more than a century ago. Freemasonry was born in 1717, unifying English lodges within Protestantism and protected by a false Judaism, Talmudic and Kabbalistic, which is Luciferian. In the 19th century, the Italian Luciferian Freemasonry of the Carbonárians approved a document in 1818 "The High Blessed", which fell by divine providence into the hands of Gregory XVI and with the permission of the next Pope Pius IX, Jacques Crétineau-Joly, journalist and historian publishes a book "The Church and Revolution" which in turn Pope Leo XIII publishes and distributes.

In this book the Masonic plan for the infiltration of Freemasonry into the church is revealed:

Masonic planning of the three world wars:

In letters dated August 15, 1871 from Albert Pike, a 33rd degree Mason, supreme Mason for 32 years in the United States, addressed to Giuseppe Mazzini, the main Carbonarian and Illuminati agent, the most Luciferian of all, he describes planning a strategy to infiltrate the Church, to infiltrate a Masonic Pope, as king of the religious world who must be obeyed (clearly wrong if this goes against morality, of the teaching of the church and the gospel). In them, he recounts the Luciferians' plan for the implementation of the single world government that would make Lucifer worshiped, planning the three world wars.

Pope Leo XIII said in his Encyclical "Humanum genus" that Freemasonry dominated all the governments of the world in 1884.

The objective of the First World War was to overthrow the power of the tsars, to create the first state in Russia that declared itself atheist and communist, thereby weakening many other states. The intention of the Second World War was to make international communism strong, destroy Nazism and strengthen Zionism to create a sovereign state of Israel and constrain Christianity.

To Pope Leo XIII, the Lord told him that he would give power to Satan for a period of one hundred years to destroy the church. The Third World War, he explained, would be provoked to take advantage of differences between political Zionists and leaders of the Islamic world, unleashing atheistic communism and social revolts, with the intention of exterminating atheism and Christianity and giving rise to the doctrine of light! the doctrine of antichrist.

This coincides with revealed prophecies about communist revolutions in France, Italy and Spain.

Freemasonry is characterized by a religious progressivism, which leads to an excessive concern for human advancement, to the detriment of the salvation of souls. A manipulation of the teachings of Jesus Christ, deterioration of the pastors, a hidden schism that manifests itself in disobedience to the doctrine, for the sake of the common good, anthropocentric pantheist, product of erroneous philosophies close to the "New Age", the age of Aquarius, which is their religion.

What will happen after the coming of Christ: The patristic millennium?

The culmination of God's plan is the reign of Christ on earth, the triumph of Jesus on Earth. What is going to happen in the world after the Parousia (2nd coming) is millennialism. Christ will reign on earth for a thousand years, according to the sacred scriptures:

AP 20, 4, they revived and reigned with Christ A THOUSAND years.

Rev 20, 1-6. "Then I saw an Angel coming down from heaven and he had in his hand the key to the Abyss and a great chain. HE dominated the Dragon, the ancient Serpent - who is the Devil and Satan - and CHAINED him for a THOUSAND YEARS. He threw it into the Abyss, locked it up and put seals on it, so that it would no longer seduce the nations until the thousand years were completed. Afterwards it has to be released for a short time. Then I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and the power to judge was given to them; I also saw the souls of those who were beheaded for the testimony of Jesus and the Word of God, and all those who did not worship the Beast or his image, and did not accept the mark on their forehead or on their hand; THEY REVIVED AND REIGNED WITH CHRIST FOR A THOUSAND YEARS.

The rest of the dead did not revive until the thousand years were over. This is the first resurrection. Blessed and holy is he who participates in the first resurrection; The second death has no power over these, but they will be Priests of God and of Christ and WILL REIGN with the THOUSAND YEARS."

The church does not condemn either the Catholic patristic or allegorical spiritual militarism of Saint Augustine and Saint Jerome; what it condemns is Judaizing and carnal millenarianism.

The golden rule of Sto. Thomas Aquinas explains that<sup>106</sup> all the meanings of writing are based on the literal meaning, he speaks of the "primacy of the literal meaning", not spiritual, nor allegorical of the bible. The Holy Fathers of the church also talk about the literal meaning.

There are two types of biblical literality: 1.

Crude: It refers to the textual, which is exact. For example, if you talk about a thousand years, it is exactly a thousand years.

2. Symbolic: When the hangover is not possible, the symbolic is applied, that is when it cannot be real, for example when he talks about a dragon, it is clear that he is referring to Satan.

In Rev 20, 4. When he describes; "They revied and reigned with Christ a thousand years", refers exactly to that, that the saints resurrected and reigned with Christ. Those who contradict millenarianism deny the scriptures, and the year is also a measure of terrestrial time.

In Father Gobbi's blue book, the Virgin affirms, many times, that Christ will come to reign on earth for a thousand years, in the form of a Eucharistic reign.

We have other sources and biblical quotes in the prayers of the Lord's Prayer and the Creed of our faith. The Lord's Prayer in his second petition says: "Your kingdom come to us on earth", it does not say take us to heaven. Also in the Creed: "I hope for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the future world." The world refers to the earth, and it is in the future, what future world does it refer to? Clearly, a resurrection on earth.

"Those who did not accept the mark reigned on earth with Christ for a thousand years." AP 20.4

With your blood you bought for God men from every tribe, people and nation, you were sacrificed and with your blood you bought for God men from every tribe and nation, you have made a people of priests and they will reign over the earth. Rev 5-10

The kingdom has arrived, and it will do so forever. I touch the seventh angel. Then loud voices sounded in heaven saying: "The REIGN over the world of our Lord and of his Christ has come, and he will reign forever and ever. Rev 11:15.

We who are alive, those who remain, until the coming of the Lord, will not precede those who died, the Lord himself, at the order given by the trumpet of God, will come down from heaven and those who died will be resurrected first. Then we who are alive will be caught up in clouds, along with them to meet the Lord in the air. 1, Ts, 4,15-17

He is telling us that that day when the Lord arrives, it will also be the first resurrection of the dead, but only of the Saints, who have already continued the rapture of the living to be transformed and inhabit the new earth with Christ and the resurrected saints.

"He will send his angels with a loud trumpet, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of the heavens to the other." Mt 24:31

Thus says the Lord Yahweh to these bones: Behold, I am going to cause the spirit to enter you, and you will live. I will cover you with sinews, I will make flesh grow on you, I will cover you with skin, I will put spirit into you and you will live; and you will know that I am Yahweh. I prophesied as I had been ordered, and while I prophesied The Camino de Santiago there was a noise. There was a shudder, and the bones came together. I looked and saw that "Look! I reveal a mystery to you: We will not all die, but we will all be transformed. In an instant, in the blink of an eye, ~~at the sound of the final trumpet, the trumpet will sound, the dead will rise~~ ~~incorruptible and we will be transformed. Indeed, it is necessary that this corruptible being be clothed with incorruptibility (Saints); and that this mortal being clothed itself (covered with nerves, the flesh came out and the skin spread over it).~~ Ez 37,5-8 This is the explanation of the resurrection of the saints after the great tribulation, at the end of the seven years that the apocalypse will last, the week predicted by the prophet Daniel. The saints will be delivered to the antichrist, but the dominion will be taken from them, they will be given to the people of the most high, of all times, including the martyrs of the great tribulation. Dn 7,25

Therefore as Christians, we must have great hope, because God himself reveals to us in his word that all those who die as martyrs, saints giving their lives in the great tribulation, in those seven years, will be resurrected immediately, in flesh and blood. , who will inhabit the earth, and reign with Christ. How great is our promise!: "You are the ones who have persevered with me in my trials, so I prepare a kingdom for you as my father prepared it for me, so that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom and sit on thrones. to judge the twelve tribes of Israel." Luke 22.

The teachings of the twelve apostles speak of the kingdom, of 107 millennium, announcing that the church of Christ will inherit the kingdom, that kingdom, is the entire earth, renewed with Jesus in the parousia, after the apocalypse, it is not the end of the world, it is a sabbatical rest for the people of God, which will last a millennium. 108

Before the millennium, the saints who died first will be resurrected and with Christ they inherit the kingdom, and they will be the first to inhabit the already transformed earth. They will be joined by those who will survive the great tribulation (one third of humanity apocalypse), that is, the living who have been raptured and transformed into their bodies.<sup>1</sup>, Thes, 4

2 Peter,3,8, everything will be renewed by fire.

<sup>109</sup> The pattern of millennia explains how the pattern of biblical days and years, "to the seventh rest," extends to the millennia.
Six thousand years working and 1000 years resting. Genesis is prophetic, saying that paradise is like the millennium that the promises of Jacob and Esaub were not fulfilled because they will be fulfilled in the kingdom, just as everything you give now, you will have later in the kingdom.

that I am going to give you, the land will also have its rest in honor of Yahweh. SIX YEARS you will sow your field, six years you will prune your vineyard and harvest its products; but the SEVENTH YEAR will be a complete rest for the land, a Sabbath in honor of Yahweh.

1 Cor 15:21-26 summarizes everything we have explained:

“For since death came through one man, through one man comes the resurrection of the dead. For just as all die in Adam, so all will be revived in Christ. But each one in his rank:

1. Christ as firstfruits: he is the first offering to the Father, on the altar of Calvary, offered by Mary.
  2. Then those of Christ at his coming. It refers to the second coming, after the apocalypse, with the resurrection of the saints, that is the next offering.
  3. Christ reigns until he puts his enemies under his feet.
  4. Then, the end, when he hands over the kingdom to God the Father, after having destroyed all principality, dominion and power.
- This refers to the end of the millennium, where the devil will be released again for a time, to purify what remains, before establishing the reign of God in the world, and no one will die anymore, it will be eternal life. “For He must reign until He puts all His enemies under His feet, the last enemy to be destroyed will be death.” In the kingdom of God there will be no more death, the earth will be transformed and that kingdom will be eternal, all the damned will be resurrected.

“Humanity will once again be<sup>110</sup> a new garden of beauty, Jesus will establish his glorious kingdom, you will see a new earth and heavens.”

Jesus, who has taught us prayer to invoke the coming of the kingdom on earth, will see his invocation fulfilled, because he will establish his kingdom, it will be glorified and exalted, a universal kingdom of grace, communion, holiness and Peace.

HIS SECOND COMING<sup>111</sup> WILL BE SIMILAR TO THE FIRST, Favorite children. AS HIS BIRTH WAS ON THIS NIGHT, IT WILL BE THE RETURN OF JESUS IN HIS GLORY, BEFORE HIS LATEST COMING FOR THE FINAL JUDGMENT, whose hour is, however, still hidden in the secrets of the Father.

«When the Son of Man comes, will he still find Faith on Earth?» It will come suddenly, and the world will not be prepared for its coming. He will come for a judgment, for which man will not be prepared (refers to the judgment of the nations). HE WILL COME to INSTALL his KINGDOM in the WORLD, once he has defeated and annihilated his enemies. (Refers to the 1000-year kingdom). I collect you in my Immaculate heart to prepare yourselves to receive Jesus who is ABOUT TO ARRIVE to you in the splendor of his GLORIOUS KINGDOM. It is understood that there will be two judgments: the Judgment of the Nations before the millennium, and the Final Judgment after the millennium, when the kingdom of God is established.

These times are closer<sup>112</sup> than you imagine. Already, during this Marian year, some great events, which I PREDICTED TO YOU IN FATIMA AND WHICH I REVEALED TO THE CHILDREN OF MEDJUGORJE, will come to pass. JESUS WILL ESTABLISH HIS GLORIOUS KINGDOM: He will be with you, and you will know the New Times and the New Era. You will finally see a New Earth and New Skies. The Holy Spirit will descend like fire, but in a different way than his first coming: it will be a fire that will burn and transform everything, that will sanctify and renew the earth from its very foundations. It will open hearts to a new reality of life and lead all souls to a fullness of holiness and grace. Jesus with his coming will change everything, it refers to what Acts 3:21 says with the universal restoration and the book of Maria Luisa Piccarreta, with the Kingdom of the divine will on earth. At that moment the wheat will be separated from the tares, and the conversion of the Jewish people will be reunited.

Before the great miracle occurs, Russia must consecrate itself to the Immaculate Heart of Mary. Russia will invade the world helped by the Arabs, but in the great miracle it will become and help Catholicism, this will happen only in one day.

The warning predicted in Garabandal will be a minimum of 40 days before the miracle and may occur in the middle of the period, at 3.5 years, between March and May. Scripture and other sources also tell us about this event. Here we collect some of these sources.

“Before the miracle, the Virgin told me on January 1 [1965], there will be a warning for the world to mend itself, and that warning is like a punishment. He is very fearful, for good and bad. For the good to bring them closer to God, and for the bad to warn them that the end of times is coming. And that they are the last warnings.” Fragment of a letter from Conchita dated June 2, 1965. Garabandal. Spain.

“In the warning we will see everything that we have offended God with our sins.” Diary of Conchita, San Sebastián de Garabandal, 1961-1963

“Before the day of justice comes, this sign will be given to men in heaven. All light in heaven will be extinguished and there will be great darkness throughout the earth. Then, the sign of the cross will appear in the sky and from the holes where the hands and feet of the savior were nailed, great lights will emerge that will illuminate the earth for some time. That will happen shortly before the last day.”Diary of St. Faustina Kowalska, #83

“He will illuminate the secrets of darkness and reveal the designs of the hearts.” 1Co 4.5

“For the days will come when it will be said: Blessed are the barren, the wombs that have not brought forth and the breasts that have not bred! Then they will begin to say to the mountains: Fall on us! And to the hills: Cover us!” Lk 23,27-30.

“And I kept watching. When he opened the sixth seal, a violent earthquake occurred ; and the sun became black as a cloth of horsehair, and the moon as black as blood, and the stars of the sky fell to the earth, as the fig tree releases its green figs when shaken by a strong wind; and the heaven was removed like a book that is rolled up, and all the mountains and islands were removed from their seats; and the kings of the earth, the magnates, the tribunes, the rich, the powerful, and all, slave or free, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains. And they say to the mountains and the rocks: "Fall." upon us and hide us from the sight of him who sits on the throne and from the wrath of the Lamb. For the Great Day of his wrath has come and who can stand?»”Rev 6:12-17.

“Many will be washed, whitened and purged; the wicked will continue to do evil; no wicked will understand anything; only the learned will understand.”

Daniel 12:10.

“There will be signs in the sun, in the moon and in the stars.”

Luke 21,25-26.

THE GREAT TRIBULATION

Great tribulation, it will be the great test to overcome before the parousia, it will begin with the reign of the antichrist, with the suppression of the Eucharist and the mark of the beast, the virgin in this period will take her children to the desert to protect them for those three years and a half.

The “Final Test” before the advent of Christ in his Second Coming (CCC #675).

The “Last Easter” of the Church, in which she will follow her Lord in his Passion and then enter the Kingdom in glory (CIC #677).

The prelude to the “Universal Restoration”, in which everything is rescued and restored by Christ by virtue of the Redemption, which awaits our body, our spirit, our soul and the entire creation; “the time of consolation” arrives (Acts 3:21; Rom 8:19-23).

Mt 24,15-22.

A punishment for humanity, the product of the greatest offense to God. Mt 24, 15-22

“And I felt my spirit flooded by a mystery of light that is God, and in Him I saw and heard: the tip of the spear, like a flame that is released, touches the axis of the earth; she trembles: mountains, cities, towns and villages with their inhabitants are buried [fall of the earth's axis]. To inherit the kingdom it is not necessary to survive the great tribulation, it is the least relevant, the only important thing is to be willing to give your life for the gospel. If you give your life in martyrdom, you will inherit the secure kingdom, otherwise you will be able to go to purgatory, and you would not be resurrected until the end of time. Those who wear the white garments are the martyrs, who will have a privileged place in the new earth.

Therefore, the only thing that should matter to us is that we are worthy to enter this thousand-year kingdom.

The Lord is going to prepare his people to experience the great tribulation.

Today's generation is the weakest and the one that has committed the most sins in all of history.

Mt 24, in the eschatological discourses, Jesus speaks of the most difficult period in history, and warns us to flee to the mountains at the moment when sacrifice is abolished and in the holy place.

He explains that it will explode in one blow, that it will be sudden. Dn 8, 9,11,12 also refers to this end of time.

Mt 8:23, Do not get out of the boat in the storm, trusting in God.

Heb 3, 7-19 Do not harden your heart, like that generation, which disgusted me, swore my anger at those who disobeyed and did not enter my rest, because of their unbelief.

We encourage you to continue delving deeper into these teachings through our Telgram schools, where you can download books and documentation, so that they are light in the darkness.

Prophecy of Saint Francis of Assisi.

"A man, chosen non-canonically, will rise to the pontificate, and with his cunning will strive to lead many into error and death." "There will be very few Christians who will obey the true Supreme Pontiff." "There will be a false Pope and a true Pope reigning at the same time." "Some preachers will remain silent about the truth and deny it.

Holiness of life will be carried out amid mockery, uttered even by those who will profess it outwardly, for in those days our Lord Jesus Christ will not send to these a true Shepherd, but a DESTROYER."

San Francisco de Asis, 1226, from the Works of San Francisco, published in Cologne in 1848.

"I saw a strong opposition between two Popes, and I saw how dire the consequences of the false church will be, I saw that the Church of Peter will be undermined by the plan of a sect. When the kingdom of Antichrist is near, a false religion will appear that will be against the unity of God and his Church. This will cause the biggest schism the world has ever seen.”

(Revelations and Visions of the Blessed and Stigmatized, Sister Ana Catalina Emmerick, 6/27/1822)

“From one of them came a small horn, which grew greatly towards the south, the east and the land of splendor.

He grew to the army of heaven, he threw part of the army and the stars to the ground, and trampled them with his feet, the truth to the ground; and He even reached the Chief of the army [Pope], he abolished the perpetual ~~sacrifice, the foundation of his sanctuary and to the army [priests] he put~~ iniquity in the place of the sacrifice, thus he acted and success accompanied him.” Dan 8.9

Blessed Pius IX “if a future Pope teaches something contrary to the Catholic faith, do not follow him.” Approved apparitions Akita Japan: “Cardinals and bishops will be seen against each other.”

“The work of the devil will infiltrate even within the Church in such a way that cardinals will be seen against cardinals, bishops against bishops, Rome will lose the Faith and will become the seat of the antichrist.” Apparitions of the Blessed Virgin Mary, from La Salette, France, 1846, approved by the Church.

MESSAGE FROM MARY TO HER APOSTLES OF THE LAST TIME

“Pray that you may be apostles of God's light in this time of darkness and despair. This is the time of your trial. With the Rosary in your hand and love in your heart, come with me ”Mary invites us to fight in her army towards the triumph of her Immaculate Heart...

Who will these apostles be? Those who respond to his call by becoming witnesses of the truth, denying themselves and carrying their cross after his Son.....Jesus on the cross left us the example of love and dedication. Are we willing to live a life of dedication in the likeness of our Savior?....

Are we aware that life is a struggle and that our souls and those of our brothers are at stake?

Why do the Camino de Santiago. Testimonials.

I. Our Roots. Religious motives and scientific explanation of the existence of Jesus.

Spirituality of the pilgrimage

For the tribes that left Egypt, Sinai, the mountain of theophany to Moses (Ex 19-20), became a sacred place and the entire path of the Sinai desert had for them the meaning of a long journey to the holy land. of the promise: journey blessed by God, who in the Ark (Num 10,33-36) and in the Tabernacle (2 Sam 7,6), symbols of his presence, walks with his people, guides them and protects them through of the Cloud (Num 9,15-23). Jerusalem, converted into the seat of the Temple and the Ark, became the sanctuary city of the Hebrews, the goal par excellence of the desired "holy journey" (Ps 84:6), in which the pilgrim advances "among songs of joy." , in the bustle of the party" (Ps 42,5) to "the house of God" to appear before his presence (P

The pilgrimage to Santiago preserves essential elements that determine its spirituality, which are the following:

In the eschatological dimension, <sup>124</sup> the pilgrimage is a "journey towards the sanctuary", moment and parable of the path to the Kingdom; This exodus helps to become aware of the perspective of the end, in which the Christian moves, between the darkness of faith and the thirst of vision, between narrow time and the aspiration for endless life, between the fatigue of journey and the hope of rest, between the cry of exile and the longing for the joy of the homeland, between the desire for activity and the desire for serene contemplation.

The event of the exodus of Israel towards the promised land is also reflected in the spirituality of the journey: the traveler knows that "down here we do not have a stable city" (Heb 13:14), which is why, beyond the goal immediate of the sanctuary, advances through the desert of life, towards Heaven, towards the promised land.

The penitential dimension. The route is configured as a "conversion itinerary": when walking towards Santiago, the penitent takes a journey that goes from becoming aware of his own sin and the ties that bind him to fleeting and useless things, to the achievement of inner freedom and understanding of the deep meaning of life, the faithful return with the purpose of "changing their life", of directing it towards God more decisively, to give him a more transcendent dimension.

The festive dimension. The joy of the Christian exodus is an extension of the joy of the pious wayfarer of Israel: "What joy when they told me: Let us go to the house of the Lord" (Ps 122,1); It is relief from the breaking of daily monotony, from the perspective of something diverse; It is lightening the weight of life that for many, especially the poor, is a heavy burden; It is an occasion to express Christian brotherhood, to give rise to moments of coexistence and friendship, to show spontaneity, which is often repressed.

The cult dimension. The trip is essentially an act of worship: the pilgrim walks to the Cathedral of Santiago to meet God, to be in his presence paying him the cult of his adoration and to open his heart to him.

In Santiago, the penitent performs numerous acts of worship, both liturgical and popular piety. His prayer takes on diverse forms: praise and adoration of the Lord for his goodness and holiness; of thanksgiving for the gifts received; of fulfillment of a vow, to which he had been obliged.

The apostolic dimension. The itinerant situation of the pilgrim presents again that of Jesus and his disciples, who toured Palestine to announce the Gospel of salvation. In the announcement of faith and walkers become "itinerant heralds of Christ."

The dimension of communion. The pilgrim is in communion of faith and charity, not only with the companions with whom he makes the "holy journey" (Ps 84:6), but with the Lord himself, who travels with him, as he did with the disciples of Emmaus. (Lk 24,13-35); with his community of origin, and through it, with the Church that lives in heaven and on earth; with the faithful who, throughout the centuries, have prayed in the cathedral of Santiago; with the nature that surrounds the place, whose beauty he admires and which he feels moved to respect.

Life is relentless and hard. The world wants to soften it for us and presents it to us without problems, easy to solve; All you have to do is press a button, and everything is solved. But reality is not like that, life presents challenges, struggles, winds and currents with which we have to fight, the solution is easy, everything depends on the solidity of our roots, our roots. We have to strengthen and feed them to allow them to cling well to the earth and look for their food. You don't want to give them everything on a platter, otherwise, they will be exposed to an easy life, and when it is their turn to resist the hurricane, they will suffer the consequences.

Growing is creating deep roots, so that they can draw energy from the best sources, the most divine, which are found in the most remote places. We pray too much not to have difficulties, but what we need to do is pray to develop strong and deep roots, solid bonds, so that, when the storms come and the icy winds blow, we resist with courage and are not dominated and uprooted. . May God give us deep roots!

When the Lord gives the table of commandments to Moses on Mount Sinai, he only asks for two things: Love God above all things and love your neighbor as yourself.

Loving the almighty means having communion with him. You cannot reach him without passing through Jesus, who wanted to remain in his Church, present in the Eucharist, therefore, the means to unite us with the Most High is his Church. Well, the word of God is always fulfilled. We need to take communion, eat his body and drink his blood, in the holy Eucharist, to unite them with him, to be one with him.

Jesus said: "I am the way, and the truth, and the life; No one goes to the Father except through me. Jn 14

"You are Peter, and on this rock I will build my Church, and the power of hell will not defeat it." Mt 16

Our Christian roots The origin of Catholicism dates back to the organization of the apostles, for the preservation and dissemination of their legacy. According to tradition, the founder of the Catholic Church was the apostle Saint Peter, considered the first pope, based on the instructions received directly from the Messiah. This occurred in the 1st century AD and formalized the separation between rabbinic Judaism and early Christianity. This first organized church (as narrated in the Acts of the Apostles) is what would later be called, around the year 100 AD, the universal church, the Catholic Church. The exact organization of this first church often varied until the 3rd century, ranging from a three-tier organization (bishops, presbyters and deacons) to one of seven, at the head of which was the bishop of Rome played a special role, given that it was the capital of the Roman Empire.

Christianity was persecuted by the Romans until around 313 AD, after the publication of the Edict of Milan that granted freedom of worship in the Empire, which allowed Christianity to reform and shape the official cult, through the Councils of Nicaea 325 AD, Ephesus I 431 AD and Chalcedon 451 AD

However, since the year 380 AD. C, Christianity became the official religion of the Roman state, after the Edict of Thessalonica by Emperor Theodosius I the Great. In these reforms, different early Christian variants were expelled, declared as heretical.

By the 5th century AD the Catholic Church had spread throughout the Empire, from Hispania to Syria and Africa, and the following centuries saw the evangelization of the rest of northern and eastern Europe. Already then the Catholic Church was the only formal Christian church, and continued to be so until the Great Schism of East and West in 1054 AD, which gave rise to Orthodox Catholic Christianity, and then the Protestant Reformation in 1517 AD. C, which gave rise to Protestantism. It is important to refer to the fact that the longest empire in these 2000 years AD. C was the Byzantine, whose religion was Catholic, with 1500 years of history.

Main dogmas of Christianity The resurrection of Jesus Christ is the central dogma of Christianity, decisive proof of the truth of its doctrine.

«If Christ is not resurrected - wrote Saint Paul, what good is our 116 preaching, your faith is in vain" (I Cor XV, 14). From then on the apostles would present themselves as "witnesses" of the risen Christ (Act II, 22; III, 15), they would announce him throughout the entire world and seal their testimony with their own martyrdom of blood. The disciples recognized his divinity, they believed in the fullness of revelation, transmitted by the teacher and collected by sacred writing and tradition.

But Jesus not only founded a religion "Christianity", but also a church, constituted in the form of a visible community of salvation, to which men are incorporated through baptism. Its constitution began on Pentecost, the day the Holy Spirit descends on the disciples, from then on its history begins.

Certainties of Christianity

"He who hears these words of mine and puts them into practice is like that wise man who built his house on rock.

The rain fell, the rivers overflowed, the winds blew, but it did not sink, because it was founded on rock. He who hears these words of mine and does not put them into practice is like that foolish man who built his house on sand. The rain fell, the rivers overflowed, the winds blew and broke against the house, and it collapsed. And his ruin was great." Mt 7

Do we want to find answers to build a life on rock? What is my purpose? What is my destiny?

We recommend reading the book to understand what happened, to all those who do not have enough faith.<sup>125</sup>

In this generation the opinion is held that if one cannot prove a thing with science, it cannot be true. The "scientific method is related to the evaluation of the phenomenon and experimentation or repetition of observation."

Dr. James B. Conant, former president of Harvard, writes: "Science is a series of interconnected concepts and schemes that have developed as a result of experiment and observation."

If the scientific method were the only method we had to prove facts, one could not prove that we watched television last night, nor that we had lunch today. There is no way one can repeat those events in a controlled situation.

The other method of proof, is the historical-legal one, is based on demonstrating that something is a fact. This proof depends on three types of testimony: oral, written and tangible evidence. The scientific method can only be used to prove repeatable things, however it is not suitable for proving or disproving matters about people or events in history, for example, for answering questions such as: "Did George Washington live?"

There have always been people who deny the existence of God and they will probably never cease to exist. Although atheists speak _____

The New Testament offers the main source of historical information about Jesus. The New Testament accounts of the life and teachings of Christ were written by men who were either eyewitnesses or associated with those witnesses to the true events or teachings of Christ.

After suffering death, Jesus appeared to them (resurrected) giving them many convincing proofs that he was alive, over forty days and spoke to them about the kingdom of God.

“We cannot stop talking about what we have seen and heard. Acts 1:3 and 4:20

This closeness of the writers to the facts offers a very effective certification of the accuracy of the eyewitnesses.

His memories are still vivid, the historian must deal with eyewitnesses. In "The Historical Jesus: Ancient Evidence for the Life of Christ," Gary Habermas meticulously documents the extrabiblical evidence for the historical Jesus.

Archeology also provides powerful external evidence about the veracity of these events.

If one rejects the Bible as historically unreliable, one must also reject all the literature of antiquity.

No other document has as much evidence to confirm its veracity as this one.

Another fact that corroborates this reality is that almost all the apostles who denied Christ before his death, however mysteriously changed their behavior, this courageous attitude of the apostles just after the resurrection makes it highly unlikely that everything was a fraud. Because they all gave their lives to defend the truth, they became brave overnight after the resurrection. Peter, who denied Christ, stood firm even in the face of the threat of death and proclaimed that Jesus was alive. His martyrdom firmly held two truths: The divinity of Christ and his resurrection. Who would die for a lie?

If the resurrection was a lie, the apostles would have known it. Would the apostles be capable of perpetuating a colossal deception? Such a possibility is inconsistent with what we know about the moral quality of their lives. When they were willing to spend the rest of their lives proclaiming it, without any reward from a human point of view.

"How did they transform, almost overnight, into the indomitable band of enthusiasts who defied opposition, cynicism, ridicule, tribulation, prison and death, while preaching everywhere about Jesus and his Resurrection?".

The reality of the person that the Jews expected as Messiah was totally different from Jesus, like the apostles, they expected a political king who would free them from Roman slavery, in no way did they accept the crucifixion of Jesus, nor the Calvary, it was a scandal and a contradiction, that is why all his disciples abandoned him. How could they change radically afterwards?

Professor McDowell<sup>126</sup>, said: "After spending more than seven hundred hours studying this topic and exhaustively researching its foundation, I have come to the conclusion that the resurrection of Jesus Christ is either one of the most evil, cruel and merciless deceptions ever imposed on humanity. or it is the most important event in the history of the world.

Jesus of Nazareth, a Jewish prophet who claimed to be the Christ prophesied in the Old Testament Scriptures, was arrested, tried as a political criminal, and crucified. Three days after his death and burial, some women went to his grave and did not see the body. Christ's disciples declared that God had raised Him from the dead and that He appeared to them many times before ascending to heaven. From this basis, Christianity spread throughout the Roman Empire and has continued to exert great influence throughout the world throughout the last twenty centuries.

He is the only spiritual leader whose bones have not been found in the tomb. Christ left the tomb empty!

The empty tomb was "too notorious to be denied." How can this historical evidence be explained? There is not a shred of evidence that has been discovered, even in sources literary, epigraphic, or archaeological that refutes this statement.

The massive stone was not only moved from the entrance, but from the entire tomb, giving the impression that it was lifted and removed. The guard unit guarding the tomb fled, something unthinkable! at that time. The emperor of Byzantine Rome at the time, Justinian, lists eighteen offenses for which the Roman guard could be executed, and among them was falling asleep or leaving a position undefended by those guarding the tomb.

A third argument is that of all the credentials that Jesus had, in order to support his claims to be the Messiah and the son of God, one of the most important and profound is often overlooked: the way in which with his life so many ancient prophecies were fulfilled, an amazing fact.

Galatians 4:4 "When the time was fulfilled, God sent his Son, born of a woman, born under the law." Prophecy fulfilled in Jesus Christ. The Old Testament contains sixty major messianic prophecies and some two hundred and seventy ramifications that were fulfilled in one person: Jesus Christ. It is useful to take a look at all those predictions fulfilled in Christ.

In even greater detail, God wrote an "address" in history to distinguish his Son, the Messiah, the Savior of humanity, from everyone who has lived in history: past, present, or future. The specific data of this direction can be found in the Old Testament, a document that was written over a period of more than a thousand years and which contains more than three hundred references to the coming of Christ.

Using the science of probability, we find that the chance of no more than forty-eight such prophecies coming true in one person is only 1 in 10,157.

The prophecies about the Messiah were made at least four hundred years before he appeared.

The Septuagint, the Greek translation of the ancient Hebrew establishment, was translated around 150-200 BC. This means that there is a gap of at least two hundred years between the recording of the prophecies and their fulfillment in Christ.

About forty men have claimed to be the Jewish messiah. However, only one, Jesus Christ, appealed to the fulfillment of prophecy to support his claims, and only his credentials confirmed those claims.

In Genesis 9 and 10, God shortened the address even further. Noah had three sons: Shem, Ham and Japheth. Every nation in the world can be traced back to these three men. However, God impressively eliminated two-thirds of mankind from Jesus' line by specifying that the Messiah would come through the lineage of Shem.

Then continuing to the year 2000 BC, we find that God called a man named Abraham from Ur of the Chaldeans. With Abraham, he became more specific, declaring that the Messiah would be one of his descendants. All families on earth would be blessed through him. When he had two sons, Isaac and Ishmael, many of his sons were eliminated.

descendants when Yahweh selected the second son, Isaac, to be the progenitor of the Messiah.<sup>128</sup>

Isaac had two sons: Jacob and Esau. God chooses the line of Jacob Jacob had twelve <sup>129</sup>sons, from whose descendants the twelve tribes of Israel developed. Then God selected the tribe of Judah for Jesus and eliminated eleven of the twelve Israelite tribes.

Jesse had eight sons, he eliminated seven of the eight sons from Jesse's family line by choosing his son David. Therefore, from the point of view of lineage, the Messiah was to be born from the seed of a woman, from the lineage of Shem, from the race of the Jews, from the line of Isaac, from the line of Jacob, from the tribe of Judah, of the family of Jesse, and of the house of David.

“But you, Bethlehem Ephrathah, small to be among the thousands of Judah, from you will come to me the one who will be ruler in Israel; and its origins are from ancient times, from the days of eternity.” Micah 5:2,

God eliminated all the cities of the world and selected Bethlehem, with a population of less than a thousand people, as the birthplace of the Messiah.

Malachi 3:1 and four other Old Testament verses specify that the Messiah would arrive while the temple in Jerusalem remained standing (Psalm 118:26).

<sup>128</sup> (see Genesis 17:19-21; 21:12).

And after the sixty-two weeks the Messiah will be killed, but not for himself; and the people of a prince who is to come will destroy the city and the sanctuary; and its end will be with a flood, and until the end of the war the devastations will last.

This is very important when we realize that the temple was destroyed in the year 70 AD and has not yet been rebuilt.

Isaiah 7:14: "Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign: Behold, the virgin will conceive and give birth to a son, and will call his name Immanuel," adds that Christ would be born of a virgin, in a natural birth, of a supernatural conception, it was a criterion that goes beyond human planning and control.

Several prophecies recorded in Isaiah and the psalms describe the social environment and the response that the man of God would encounter: His own people, the Jews, would reject Him, and the Gentiles would believe in Him.

<sup>130</sup> . He would have a forerunner, a voice in the wilderness, one who would prepare the way before the Lord, a John the Baptist (Isaiah 40:3-5; Malachi 3:1). Then, through a series of prophecies, he even defined the time in which this man would be set aside.

A prophecy dating back to 1012 BC also predicts that they would pierce this man's hands and feet and crucify him, Psalm 22:6-18; Zechariah 12:10; Galatians 3:13.

"Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, becoming a curse for us because it is written: Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree." This description of the method of his death was written eight hundred years before the Romans enforced crucifixion.

<sup>130</sup> (IPsalms 22:7-8; 118:22; Isaiah 8:14; 49:6; 50:6; 52:13-15).

The precise lineage; the place, time and manner of birth; people's reactions, betrayal; the manner of death: these are just a fragment of the hundreds of details that make up the "address" to identify the son of God, the Messiah, the Savior of the world.

Stoner says that by applying the science of probability to the eight prophecies, " the chance that any man has lived and that eight prophecies have been fulfilled is 1 in [10 to the 17th power]." That's one in 100,000,000,000,000,000. In order to help us understand these amazing probabilities and prophecies hundreds of years before they are all fulfilled in Jesus Christ.

These prophecies were given, either by inspiration from God, or the prophets, and they only wrote what they thought they should be. In that case, the prophets would only have a chance in 10 to the power of (17) of being true in any man, but they all came true in Christ.

This alone would explain that he is the son of God.

Another interesting fact, have you wondered why all history is written from year 0 right at the birth of Christ, before and after Christ?

Is there any other way, other than Christ?

"Why is Jesus the only way to a relationship with God?" I had to demonstrate that Jesus claimed to be the only way to God, that the testimony of the Scriptures and the apostles was reliable, and that there was sufficient evidence to warrant faith in Jesus as Savior and Lord.

Why only Jesus? Is there no other way to God?

It's strange that people don't get tired of looking for alternatives.

«What do you tell me about Buddha? "Muhammad? Can't a person just live a good life? If God is such a loving God, wouldn't He accept all people as they are?" This attitude shows that many people do not understand the nature of God.

We see the misunderstanding "how does a loving God allow someone to go to hell?" Many times I turn the question around and say, "How does a holy, righteous, righteous God allow a sinner in his presence?" Most people understand that God is a loving God, but they don't go beyond that. God is not only love, but he is also right, just and holy.

He cannot tolerate sin in his heaven, how would you describe God? This misunderstanding about Jesus about the nature of God is the reason for many theological and ethical problems.

Brief summary of the history of Biblica Here is the problem in relation to us: If God's nature is love, how is it possible that He sends someone to hell? The answer, simply put, is that God does not send people to hell; They go because of their own decisions. In order to explain it, we must return again to creation. The Bible indicates that God created man and woman so that he could share his love and glory with them. However, Adam and Eve decided to rebel and go their own way, they abandoned the love and protection of God, contaminating themselves with that stubbornness, greed and proud nature that we can call sin. Because God The Camino de Santiago

He loved man and woman dearly, even after they despised him, he wanted to reach them and save them from the deadly path they had chosen. However, he faced a dilemma, since he is not only loving, but also holy, righteous and just, sin cannot survive in his presence. His same holy, righteous and righteous nature would destroy the sinful couple, which is why the Bible says: "The wages of sin is death" (Romans 6:23). Therefore, how could God resolve this dilemma and save the man and woman after their sin?

The divinity, God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit, made a surprising decision, Jesus, God the Son, would take on human flesh, he would become God-man. We read this in the first chapter of John's gospel, where it says that "the Word became flesh and dwelt among us" (John 1:14).

Philippians 2 also tells us that Jesus Christ laid aside his divine prerogatives and took human form (Philippians 2:6-7).

Jesus was the God-man, he was as man as if he had never been God and as God as if he had never been man, his humanity did not diminish his deity, and his deity did not bend his humanity.

This is what God did for us. He said, "I forgive you." However, he paid his own price for forgiveness through the cross. It is a payment that cannot be offered to us by Buddha, Muhammad, Confucius, or any other religious or ethical leader. No one can pay the price by "just living a good life." I know it seems exclusive to say it, but we must do it because it is true: There is no other way but Jesus.

What makes Jesus so different from other religious leaders, Buddha, Muhammad?

This carpenter from Nazareth made astonishing statements about himself, claiming to be divine, the only way of salvation and forgiveness of sins.

The name Jesus is derived from the Greek form of the name Yeshua or Joshua, meaning "Jehovah is salvation" or "the Lord saves."

The title Christ was derived from the Greek word for Messiah (or the Hebrew Mashiach, Daniel 9:26) and means "anointed one." The two offices, king and priest, are indicated in that title, which confirms that Jesus is the Priest and King promised in the prophecies of the Old Testament. This statement is crucial for a proper understanding of Jesus and Christianity. The New Testament clearly presents Christ as the son of God.

It is not his teachings that make Jesus so notable, but his human quality, who would die to save his enemy? It is a LOVE, in capital letters, worthy of a king, worthy of a GOD.

William Lecky, one of Great Britain's most notable historians

Brittany and an opponent of Christianity, saw the effect of true Christianity on the world and writes:

To Christianity was reserved the presentation to the world of an ideal, which through all the changes of eighteen centuries, has inspired the hearts of men with passionate love; He has shown himself capable of acting in all ages, nations, temperaments and conditions; has not only been the highest model of virtue, but the greatest incentive for its practice. The simple evidence of his three brief years of active life has done more to regenerate and soften humanity than all the debates of philosophers and all the exhortations of moralists of recent times.

If Jesus wanted to get people to follow him and believe in him, why did he go to the Jewish nation? Why does he go as an ordinary carpenter in an undistinguished village in a country so small in size and population? Why does he go to a country so completely attached to the concept of one God? Why don't you go to Egypt, or even Greece, where they already believed in several gods and their various manifestations?

A student at a California university told me that his psychology professor said in class: "All I do is take the Bible and read passages of Christ's teaching to my patients, that's all the counseling they need."

Psychologist Gary R. Collins explains what Jesus was like:

"Loving, but he didn't let his compassion paralyze him; He had no puffed-up ego, although he was often surrounded by adoring crowds; he maintained balance, despite his lifestyle that was sometimes demanding; I always knew what I was doing and where I was going; He cared deeply about people. He was able to accept people without overlooking their sin; responded to individuals based on where they were and what they particularly needed.

"He was healthier than anyone else I know, including me!"

Faith moves mountains! Getting to the tomb of Saint James, favorite of Christ, to give thanks, ask and offer to God, his history and legacy, is big enough for people of other faiths to walk on a pilgrimage. to his grave.

A pilgrim is someone who decides to take an extensive trip to reach a sacred place as a sign of their faith and commitment to God. The religious idea of pilgrimage is associated with life as a path to travel.

II. Testimonies from the road: You will believe the impossible, you will witness miracles.

You might think that once I saw evidence like this, I became a Christian. However, despite the abundance of evidence, I felt a strong resistance to taking the step, this was due to two reasons: comfort and pride, recognizing that I had made a mistake and my previous thoughts were false.

THE ROAD CHANGED MY LIFE

My story is born in a Catholic family, with its light and dark.

At 15 years old I distanced myself from the church and its sacraments, I never lived in a Christian community, and I lost Faith in a living and true God. At 37 I decided to embark on the Camino de Santiago, with the intention of training a half IRON MAN. After traveling 500 km by bicycle, with 10Kg of saddlebags, I had the inspiration to ask for true love, and that if the "Almighty" existed, that he would reveal himself to me, I had never prayed, but sport to the limit on the road led me to an interior prayer, after many years of bad luck in love. Upon arriving in Santiago, The Camino de Santiago

I made my first confession, after communion, at the age of 37 I had my conversion like that of Saint Paul!, and until today I have not left him again. When I returned from my trip, several hardships happened to me in a row. I understood that when HE calls you, He takes you to the desert to prepare you for a mission. In the midst of the great suffering to which I was exposed, this phrase came to my heart: "if you want life to smile at you, you have to do it first, if you want true love, you have to give it first", I had this inspiration: " If that Jesus that Christians adore died for his enemies, I, who would not even be capable of dying for a friend, will know something about true love." That's how I started going to mass and confessing, reading the Bible and delving deeper into the meaning of the Faith, trying to learn and understand. Many times I asked myself, what have I gotten myself into now? Because I didn't understand almost anything, it was very complicated for me, until they took me to the parish of the Miraculous Virgin, in Madrid, on November 27, their great day of thanks, There I saw a sign on the door, which impacted me, because I saw one of my favorite phrases: "If you want to change the world, come to this course", it was Cursillos de Cristiandad. This retreat of three unforgettable days, where they showed me the meaning of authentic love, true love... I cannot explain in words what I felt there, surprises, incomprehensible joy, emotions and cries like a baby, adventure, details of movie love , gifts, a sweetness, an affection, a free pure love, that course completely changed my life, ~~I left there never to be the person I was before.~~ I began a path accompanied by this community, which was forming me, and preparing for that change, in that process, the third rosary that I prayed in my life, on May 15, the month of Mary, asking

For a true love, my husband appeared! On May 18, we had our first meeting, and two years later, on May 19, we got married in a Marian Shrine. To this day I continue to pray the rosary to the Virgin Mother every day. who gave me such a great gift! Here began a path of intense learning at the hand of Christ, Maria, my husband, various apostolates, Christian communities, especially from the Schoenstatt Sanctuary, the Virgin educated me to mature my Faith, which was never formed. The Lord radically changed my life, he showed me all his power, with thousands of impossible miracles, from small details in everyday life, to healing of tumors and other diseases, he modeled me to endure unthinkable undertakings, such as having up to fostering three children, promoting Christian communities, raising money for foundations, consecrating my home as a Sanctuary, painting, playing the piano and writing only for him, in short, giving him my life and my work completely. Always feeling very loved, welcomed, guided, pampered by him and by my mother, Maria, in the great trials, the Eucharist, the adoration, his closeness, have been a lifeline for me. He has been changing the unthinkable in me, with Maria to whom I consecrated myself years later, my queen, protector, my mother and teacher, to become more like her.

PILGRIM INJURED COVERT PRIEST!

"In a very tough mountain stage, with scorching heat in summer, around 1:00 p.m. at noon, and we still had the worst thing left, the mountains. We see a pilgrim standing on the road who seemed to be in a lot of pain, we know that if we stopped later it would be much worse, in summer every minute later of heat is crazy, on the other hand seeing him there so defenseless in the sun and the Camino de Santiago

Without moving, he touched our hearts, and we decided to take a risk and put him in the hands of God, so we tried to help him, we gave him anti-blister cream, some advice, and we accompanied him to motivate him to continue. After half an hour with him, he reveals to us that he was Italian, he had been a professional rugby player in France, and he studied law with the goal of being a judge. He had always been brilliant in his studies, but shortly before passing the examination for the judiciary, he began to feel a call to the priesthood, being in a relationship, he left it to clear his ideas, when the day of the examination arrived he stayed in white, something impossible for him, because he knew the syllabus perfectly, he clearly understood the signal and decided to enter the seminary. After this path he was going to be ordained a priest. We were shocked! He was dressed as a pilgrim, with long hair and the physique of a two-by-two athlete. Once again the Lord, giving us lessons, making his gospel come to life:

“Truly I say to you, whatever you did to one of the least of these brothers of mine, you did to me.” Matt 25:37

What a blessing! It is clear that whoever has God, lacks nothing, we finished that stage, walking two more hours, in the worst hours of the day through the mountains and full sun and by the grace of God, we were able to endure it without realizing it too much. , because we were accompanied by nothing more and nothing less than Jesus, a future Priest!, who was instructing us with master lessons of the gospel, he kept us so entertained and the conversation with him was so enjoyable, that we almost did not find out about the hardship that we were going through. A clear message that it is worth risking, we will never waste time helping others, even in the most adverse situations, in fact, it will be the Camino de Santiago only way, to be able to go through the tests successfully, because:

"Whoever wants to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it." Luke 9

TWO STRANGERS UNITED 1500 KMS

"I started in France, to travel the French way from Le Puy en Velay more than 1500 km, crossing France and Spain. I am a ski teacher in the Alps, I am 55 years old, I embarked on the adventure alone, but I was always haunted by fears of doing the road alone as a woman. He did not have a backpack, but he traveled with a hiking cart tied to his waist with more than 35 kilos of cargo. A few days after starting, on a very cloudy day, late around 8pm, I saw a man standing on the ground in the middle of the trail, about 67 years old, coming from the French Basque Country, with a huge backpack! He was devastated! I tried to encourage him. He told me that he couldn't take another step. Since I was traveling to Santiago on foot, I insisted that I had to keep going because the night was advancing and the sky was overcast. I had to make an effort. because it could be worse if he stayed there, but he refused, because he was not sure how much more he could suffer, nor whether or not there were places that would welcome him further ahead (he was not aware that the greatest danger was to stay still), he preferred sleeping there and getting wet, he didn't care, he had lost his mind. After a long time trying to convince him without success, I continued on my way, and suddenly!, just two kilometers away, miracle!, in the middle of nowhere, a hostel!, I couldn't believe it, I quickly unloaded my luggage, Although it was late, I was tired and had to do 4 more kilometers with a possible flood and without knowing if it would convince him, something prompted me to risk, The Camino de Santiago to run out to look for that Lord. When we got there, we loaded his backpack into the car. The man was surprised when he saw that I had come back to look for him, and knowing that it was only 2 km, he decided to walk. It was incredible, because two minutes after the two of us arrived at the hostel began to pour, a miracle!, because that man would have frozen, wet and sick... From that day on we walked together to Santiago, I wanted to continue alone on many occasions, because I am an athlete and my pace was much stronger than his, but he never wanted to leave me alone, he was literally destroyed and even though injured he wanted to accompany me at the necessary pace until we reached Santiago. That day he felt that God had saved his life with me, and that was his way of thanking him. For me it was also a great gift and a miracle, a sign for my daily life, in which many times I feel alone pulling everything and I am not aware that God never abandons me. Providence wanted to teach me that he always protects the pilgrim, the one who drives, the one who loves, the helpless, that when you serve noble causes, he will always provide people to accompany you, as he did on that long pilgrimage to Santiago.

GOD NEVER ABANDONES YOU: PREGNANT AND WITHOUT SHELTER "I wanted to walk from Madrid to Compostela about 600Km, I didn't have much money, some friends gave me about €250, it wasn't much, but enough to start. I spent about €5 a day on food; a few cans, a loaf of bread and some fruit, sleeping in parish shelters sometimes for free, but on the floor with the sack, where necessary. About two hundred kilometers before arriving in Santiago, upon entering the hostel, I saw a girl, she was three months pregnant, she told me that she no longer had money, that she had been eating only rice for several days, that she had nowhere to sleep and that she had been kicked out of the Camino de Santiago 136 shelter, they did not let her enter without paying, despite her pregnancy. It made a deep impression on me, because I thought, someone who has less money than me and in a terrible situation! She was also making a pilgrimage to Santiago. I decided to give him all the money I had left and divine providence made it possible for me to reach Santiago thanks to the charity of all the people along the way without any money."

"He who gives abundantly receives more than he gave; but he who is stingy ends up in poverty. He who is generous prospers;

"He who gives to others enriches himself."

Proverbs 11, 24

IMPOSSIBLE SIGNS BEFORE GRIEF

"I am English, I am not a practicing Catholic and I live in London. I work in the skydiving special forces, my girlfriend and I had had a business for four years until her death six months ago and we closed it. I wanted to do the 900km Frances path, to look for answers, given the tremendous pain I was suffering due to grief, for my recently deceased girlfriend... Approximately halfway along my path, about 500 km before arriving in Santiago, I had an ankle injury , unbearable pain, I thought I would not be able to finish my journey, this forced me to have to stop for two days in a hostel.

Being in this small hostel in a tiny town, lost in the middle of nowhere, and quite destroyed, suddenly, the miracle happened!... There I saw exactly the same model, a large ice cream machine, the same one I had with me. deceased girlfriend, in our ice cream shop in London! I couldn't believe it, what were the chances of finding that in a small town lost here in Spain?, The Camino de Santiago

Furthermore, it was a difficult machine to obtain...that moved me in such a way that it was a sign for me that God could exist, and that she was somewhere, that brought me closer to Faith, to my roots, which I had forgotten. .”

God's ways of acting always surprise us. Those “Godsidences”, those incredible coincidences. God acts when we least expect it. Take action (if you are attentive to look).

We don't have to do anything, just ask for His help and He comes. Yeah! He comes! He shows himself, full of light and speaks clearly. He wants to find us on our path, lead us along the path of wonder, because when we force things and believe that success depends only on our efforts, that is when we stop seeing.

That "knockout blow" comes in the least expected way.

Free, thanks to a human collaboration, because God is smart enough to know that only weakness, proximity creates love. For this reason, He, who needs nothing from anyone, wanted to count on man's collaboration for almost everything. And he began by leaving it in our hands to complete the work of creation and everything that would happen on earth.

THE UNIVERSE PROVIDES

I am Catholic, non-believer and Spanish, I wanted to do the Camino de Santiago from Saint Jean Pie de Port, 900km, just to check if providence provides. No money, no cell phone, no nothing. Almost a month later I can only say with tears in my eyes and a transformed heart, that providence provides, God exists.”

"Do not worry about what you are going to eat or what you are going to drink to be able to live, or what clothes you are going to cover your body with. Isn't life worth more than food, and the body more than clothing? Look at the birds that fly in the sky: they do not sow, nor reap, nor store in stores, and yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Well, you are worth much more than those birds! How weak is your faith! So do not torment yourselves saying, "What shall we eat?" Those are the things that worry pagans; but your heavenly Father already knows that you need them. You, first of all, seek the kingdom of God and his justice and God will give you everything in addition.

OUR NAMES WRITTEN ON A PAPER IN THE FIELD

"My husband and his sister set out on a 300km journey with her husband and children. They had not confessed for at least fifteen years. I was walking alone, completely destroyed, in full sun, it would be 2pm in the middle of the day in the middle of summer, I couldn't take it anymore! I was crying secretly from the pain in my feet, I moved slightly ahead of the others, so that they wouldn't see me complaining. , they were already the last kilometers of the stage.

When inside I was thinking, but what am I doing here? Who's telling me to get into this mess? I could be on the beach, calm, enjoying... when suddenly! I looked at the ground, and I saw a white paper with something big written, I was shocked because there were only stones, sand and leaves, I went closer to see it, and to my surprise!... I saw only my name and my sister-in-law's name written, there was nothing else written on that white paper, something Impossible! My name is Russian and hers is French, the two united only by her name and mine. I couldn't believe it, because on that pilgrimage she and I were the only two women. That

The Camino de Santiago 139

It was a Miracle!, that God wanted to do to show us his love, and increase our faith,...what were the chances that that paper would be there, only with our names? If I don't see it, I don't believe it!

My husband was a witness, because he was about 200m away, I didn't have a marker, otherwise no one would have believed me, they would have thought I had written it, they didn't write it either because they were always behind. After the event, my sister-in-law confessed, after 15 years without doing so."

GOD LISTENS EVEN IF YOU DON'T SEE HIM

"We are a couple from Madrid who got married in Andalusia. Doing the Camino de Santiago together, one of the stages, we offered for our marriage. Throughout that day, curiously we met and walked with a group of several charming Andalusian couples, them Catholics and non-practitioners, we went the whole way answering their doubts about Faith, testifying to the power of Jesus in his church, encouraging them to approach The sacraments. At the end of the stage, when we were going to say goodbye, I saw in front of me, an Andalusian flag, and underneath written "Jesus loves you", something impressive! I couldn't believe it... That afternoon next to our hostel, I didn't stop of playing flamenco music, like the one at our wedding, and to top it off, in that little town, we saw in giant writing on the wall, the exact name of the hermitage where we got married, incredible! How great is the Lord! He is always He listens to our prayers, which he has very much in mind, and here on the road, it is literally as if he were in front of him, as real as what I am telling you."

"We are Spanish, we travel 300km, my husband and I, as soon as we leave Leon, we see the date of our wedding written on the wall in giant form, that same day we return to see our wedding date written on the wall and the name of the "boy who introduced my husband and me, a wonderful welcome to the road so that we know that his presence is with us."

SIGNS FROM MY MOTHER FROM HEAVEN

"We are Spanish, Catholic and practicing, my mother died a few years ago and I miss her very much, we began the journey and in one of the stages in the middle of the countryside, I see written in an abandoned house, on the wall, the exact date of "My mother's death, I was shocked by the precision, but above all because my name is written above the date, something incredible." I thank God that he gives me strength, and makes me feel his closeness, from heaven.

THE GOSPEL COME LIFE

"If any of you have a hundred sheep, and you realize that you have lost one, don't you leave the other ninety-nine in the field and go in search of the lost sheep? And when he finds it, he puts it on his shoulders and returns very happy with it. Luke 15

"We set out on the road and in one of the stages we pray for sinners, for those furthest from the Lord. Crossing a town between houses and chalets, suddenly, to our surprise, we see a sheep, in the middle of the town, walking alone, the poor thing! It was like looking for something between the houses, walking along the road, we tried to reach it but it escaped us. Shortly after, about 500m away, we saw the shepherd! The man was walking the Camino de Santiago desperate and I ask us, haven't you seen a sheep? I'm looking for it, my goodness! It's lost... We couldn't believe it, hahaha! How the Lord engraves in us his gospel of the lost sheep, to help those far from God, how he listens to our prayer of the day, influences, educates, strengthens and gives us life, his sense of humor is wonderful! How great you are, Lord.”

IMPOSSIBLE WRITTEN MESSAGES.

“We make the journey, and at one stage praying for our marriage, I see written on the wall in giant size, that is, in a size of about two meters, the same text in English, of the first love note that my husband wrote to me. , this is to melt!...”

MIRACLES OF PSYCHICAL HEALING

“I am Spanish, I suffered a hard childhood, I am not baptized nor did I believe in God. I had a serious mental illness that did not allow me to leave my room for a year, I did not feel safe anywhere, I suffered from depression that manifested itself in panic, a phobia of being outside the home. I had done the Camino de Santiago several times, and I loved it, it was the only place where I felt at home. My illness was becoming very complex, I was completely obese, and I had no money, at this moment of great crisis in my life, I thought that the only place where I felt at home was on the road, so although I don't know how , I decided to try to do it one more time, a whole 900km. Having been in bed without moving for a year, my muscles were completely atrophied, I could hardly take a step, so I went very little by little and as best I could, to the Camino de Santiago

At first it took hours to cover very few kilometres. It was a true miracle! Several months later I arrived in Santiago, and my illness was completely healed. That was so strong and special, it transformed me in such a way that it completely changed my life and today I am a host, welcoming pilgrims along the way.”

FINISH THE PATH DESPITE THE EVIDENCE

“We embark on a 900km journey, although we know that God supports the pilgrim, and those who struggle to fulfill his will, fears, our shortcomings and circumstances assail us. Even so, providence has saved us from many dangers, we have seen its hand, freeing us from mosquito bites, spider bites, blisters, wounds on our feet, injuries to our ankles and knees, problems in shelters, not having enough money to buy food. , from the torrential rain, from the cold, from the heat, for which we were not prepared, it has helped us to leave early in the morning, avoiding the suffocating heat, about 40° at noon, destroyed after eight hours of walking, we were able to go to communion to daily mass almost every day. We have seen a lot of suffering along the way in many pilgrims, and nothing serious has happened to us, in so many kilometers. We have even crossed paths with some difficult people, and it has kept us away from all of them, without causing us problems.

We see how He protects the pilgrim, especially the one who seeks Him, because we cannot but He can with our weaknesses, if we surrender and approach Him, no matter how hard the trials may be....

HE CARRIES THE BURDEN of their children who implore him. Thank you Lord, for your constant protection and love, great is your mercy!"

"Psalm 34:19 No matter how many afflictions the righteous suffer, the Lord will deliver him from them all."

We know that he who is born of God is not in sin: Jesus Christ, who was born of God, protects him, and the evil one does not touch him. (1 John 5:18)

The angel of the Lord encamps around those who fear him; He is at their side to deliver them. Psalm 37.7

(Psalm 34:7) Put on the whole armor of God so that you can stand against the devil's schemes. (Ephesians 6:11)

IN YOUR WEAKNESS I BECOME STRONG

"We came to make the journey from France, 300km, my husband and three children of 9, 11 and 13 years old. One of my chubby children, who doesn't do any sports and didn't want to come or walk, the 11-year-old, at the very moment he is going to start the 1st stage, meets a man who gives him a cane. of wood to walk on, he just gives it to him, and does not give anything to the other two, who were also with him, something unheard of! A few days after starting to walk, my middle son miraculously changes completely, he becomes so excited that he even carries his little brother's backpack! I mean he had his backpack in front and his brother's behind him! If I don't see it, I don't believe it! He had two backpacks! his brother's in front and his behind."

The Lord, once again confirming his word, acts in the weakest, to confuse the proud and so that it is seen that it is a divine work and not a human one.

“God has chosen the foolish things of the world to shame the wise; “He has chosen what is weak in the world to shame what is strong.” 1 Cor 1:27

“My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness. Therefore I will rather boast gladly of my weaknesses, so that the power of Christ may remain upon me.” 2 Cor 12.9

SAVED FROM SUICIDE

“I went from the United States, to make the journey, 900km from Roncesvalles, my motivation was to pray for the salvation of my husband's soul, and ask for strength to endure the very difficult ordeal that I had suffered for a year, because my husband abandoned me and left me. He went with another woman. I am Catholic and practicing, although I had been somewhat distant from the Faith. It had been a year since my husband had left home and I had not heard anything from him, neither by phone, email, nor by any other means, as if the earth would have swallowed him.

Approximately two hundred kilometers before arriving in Santiago, miraculously! I receive a letter from him by email, to my surprise! Because, as I said, I had not heard from him again. I almost fainted! When I read it... In the letter of more than one page, he explained to me that, just a few days ago, that is, just at the same moment that I was praying for him on the road, he had been verge of suicide.

That just when The Camino de Santiago 145

He was going to jump off the San Francisco bridge, someone providentially arrived!, trying to stop him, and he couldn't jump. At first I could hardly believe what I was reading, I couldn't believe it without stopping crying. In the letter, he apologized for having abandoned me, he explained that the reason for abandoning me was that he was depressed and sick, that he had entered a psychiatric hospital to recover, that he loved me, but he simply couldn't handle his life. God was great to me, not only did he hear my prayers, giving me strength to understand and continue, but he saved my husband from death. I saw clearly his presence and power acting in the great crisis of our marriage, through the sacrament, as he took me on the path, to intercede for him so that he would not commit suicide, to start over, accompanying his illness with professionals from a hospital helping him in his recovery."

Christ himself elevated the natural institution of marriage to the dignity of a sacrament during his public ministry. He performed his first miracle at a wedding. "The Wedding at Cana" Jn 3:1 and taught that marriage in Christ, in the New Covenant is permanent and holy.

"Then the Pharisees came to him, testing him and saying, Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any reason? He answered and said to them, Have you not read that he who made them at the beginning made them male and female, and said, For this reason a man will leave father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two will become one? meat? So they are no longer two, but one flesh; ~~Therefore, what God has joined together, let no man put asunder. They said to him: Why then did Moses command to give a bill of~~ divorce, and to put her away? He told them: Because of the hardness of your heart Moses

He allowed you to divorce your wives; but at first it was not like that. And I say to you that whoever divorces his wife, except for the cause of fornication, and marries another, commits adultery; and he who marries a divorced woman commits adultery. (Matthew 19:3-9).

I MIRACULOUSLY FORGIVE MY FATHER

"I am American, I lost my wife 4 years ago, she was Catholic, I was not, before she died I asked her if she died and reached heaven, to give me a sign to increase my faith and endure her loss, knowing that I would be in a better place, I never got the signal. I decided to walk the road to ask for those signs that I never received, I started in Leon, 300km. One day while walking, suddenly! I felt something fall on my head. Out of shock, I looked up, and I didn't see anything. Since there were a lot of people, I thought someone had thrown something at me. I continued walking, there were no more people and I felt something in my head again, seeing that there were so many trees, I thought that something had fallen from a tree. A short time later, there were no trees, there was no one, I was alone and once again, something in my head, I looked everywhere and scared I closed my eyes and I had a vision, "my wife's face laughing." .... I knew that was the sign! At the end of my journey I made some friends in Madrid, who brought me closer to the miraculous and to confession, I confessed for the first time since my communion at the age of 65 and I became good friends with the priest We are still in contact, he helped me so much from a distance that a year later my life changed like I never would have imagined. I hadn't spoken to my father for 30 years, because my mother committed suicide because he cheated on her and he never told her. Sorry, a few months later, I started taking care of you when you were 90 years old.

He didn't talk to me with my brother either, and after making peace with my Father, we reestablished relations again my brother The Camino de and I, to the point of setting up a foundation together. My dream was always to have a house in France, the following year my dream came true, I bought a house in Foix, France.

Today I see clearly the hand of God, who led me on the path to completely change my life, heal deep wounds and be able to begin again, in a life close to the Lord."

"Your sins are forgiven...Your faith has saved you, go in peace." Luke 7

LIFE CHANGE

On the bus to Sarria where we were going to start a short journey, we suddenly struck up a conversation with a French pilgrim. He was a high mountain guide in Chamonix, he had recently finished the French way, from Le Puy en Velay. He told us that he walked an average of 40km a day. I was going to turn 50, I wanted to change my life. Along the way he received a call, and immediately put his apartment in the Alps up for sale, which sold in a few days. With that money he decided that he was going to buy a hostel in Galicia to serve pilgrims.

But at the moment waiting for the arrival of his furniture to Spain, as the French road had been a little short, he was going to Andalusia to join the Via de la Plata, to walk from Seville to Santiago for about 800 more kms, before changing! completely of life!

MANY DETAILS OF GOD WITH A LOT OF LOVE

"While on the road, at dinner in a shelter, a plate broke into thousands of pieces in our hands and miraculously nothing happened to us."

"We spent my husband's birthday on the road, that day we saw his name drawn naturally on two different trees twice, impressive! on different trees, and shortly after we see written on the wall, Happy Birthday, in thousands of colors!, and my name written on the wall, with a heart."

"In love with a song I heard on Pentecost, which I had never heard before, I tried to get it for three months, finally they told me that it was a personal work, in short that it is impossible to obtain it. We set out to do the Camino de Santiago, a few days after starting to walk, they sent me a video, and miracle! It was the song! I was crazy to get it."

"I walk the path, and I feel the love of God everywhere, every stage I find a sticker, written "Jesus loves you, in case you don't know", I see it written in several languages, I find many precious stones in the shape of a heart on the floor, I see I love you written on the floor, on walls, on posters, I see my name written which is very unusual, several times, the messages of love, they are all over the road, it is something impressive."

SAVED FROM AN ACCIDENT

"We started from Roncesvalles on the road, we rented a car to get there and make the complete journey, on the highway on the way the car we rented went into safety mode, the engine literally stopped and the car was in the middle of the highway, this happened twice, to have killed us! The miracle was that neither time did a car pass by,

It seems that the highway momentarily emptied, and there were no cars in front or behind.”

MARRIAGE AND CONVERSION

“I did the journey with my foreign boyfriend, today my husband, I had been dating him for a few months and since I had no Faith, I offered the journey for his conversion, and our courtship. We walked 120km, which was very hard, since it didn't stop raining and we were soaked every day. When we started, the first two kilometers in the dark, a girl who was ahead of us turned on a flashlight, which illuminated the path, and my boyfriend could clearly see a tomb, with his name written in Latin, a name that is written like that only on the province where I was born, with a saint in front,... Saint....and the name in his language, now married, my husband practices the faith and is very close to the Lord.”

“I made the journey and there I met my husband, years later I married him, now we repeat to remember and thank the apostle for our great love.”

THE APOSTLE INTERCEDES FOR OUR NEW HOME

“My husband and I, we travel a lot, we don't want to buy a house, but we set out on the road and ask Santiago to enlighten us, along the way, we can't get the purchase out of our minds, it seems that the apostle, It inspires us to try it, the following year after seeing many houses, already exhausted we only like three, one of them almost double the price we want to invest, we make an offer to the lady and she completely refuses. We return in May to Santiago for work reasons and the Camino de Santiago

As we open the door of the hotel upon arriving in Santiago, the lady calls us and confirms that she is negotiating, finally she sells us the house at a price that is within our budget, impressive, God is great!"

I AM HEALED FROM DEPRESSION

On the way to Santo Domingo de la Calzada, we found a young Catalan sitting on a bench barefoot. He had bought his shoes that were too tight. After a few stages his little toe was raw. He could hardly walk because of the pain. We proposed a compeed to cover his wound, and that led to a talk that lasted an hour.

"He was 23 years old, from the interior of the province of Barcelona, his parents were businessmen, he was much more sensitive and very attracted to the arts, passionate about psychology, which his father did not understand. He was very out of touch with the independence cause of Catalonia, he wondered why he couldn't be American, and had to be Spanish, he felt like a citizen of the world there on the road. He explained to us that 2 years ago he had suffered from depression, he was on medication, faced with this very difficult situation, he ventured out and walked the 900km Camino de Santiago, when he finished the journey, he had stopped taking the pills, he had been cured. He repeated another 700km, two years later, having already studied architecture and discerning his vocation."

HEALING WOUNDS CAUSED BY THE CHURCH

"We met a German from Berlin (former GDR), at the beginning of the path, a man of about 50 years old, formerly of the army special forces, almost 2 meters tall, with a very complex build.

muscular, with a military haircut to millimeters. We sat with him and gave him an image of a virgin. He told us that his motivation for walking the path was sporting, that he had not set foot in a church for more than 25 years when the priest who baptized his daughter, considering him a bad Catholic, told him. He said that he would baptize his daughter with the only condition that she leave the Church.

A few days later we met again, we noticed that he was very affected, and with tears in his eyes, he explained to us that something strange was happening to him, he couldn't stop thinking about his parents who had died a week ago when he entered the road. The day before arriving in Burgos we met him again, we shared the same hostel. We talked to him again and he collapsed. He gave us his testimony, his parents died more than 30 years ago and he had never thought especially about them again, however when he reached the road, it was as if he couldn't get them out of his head. He comments that he walked away from the Faith years ago, and that when he gave him that postcard of the virgin, he broke down, because he knew that there was something more, he had felt it along the way, he felt that God is real. We urged him to enter the churches and ask God for Faith and confess and we said goodbye. The next day we saw him at mass in the cathedral of Burgos, glory to God!

HEROIC VIRTUES on the PATH OF SANTIAGO

"We met a 75-year-old woman, very thin, she told us that she came walking from Luxembourg, 3000km, three months walking, she also said that she had never done sports before, that she was not trained, that the road was her training."

"We came across a 65-year-old woman in a motorized wheelchair, she gave us the testimony of traveling 200km of the road to Santiago."

GOD IS ABOVE MEDICAL FORECASTS

"We know an older man who says he comes from Seattle, USA, he has recently had surgery on both knees, full of scars, the doctor tells him to be happy if he can go get bread on foot. He decides to challenge himself and to test his new knees he bravely sets out, nothing less than doing the French Way alone, 900 km, crossing all of Spain with a backpack and walking sticks. A heroic action in his situation! Physically he is just like Abraham, he gives us the testimony that he has suffered and has gone slowly but manages to reach the end. When the doctor had told him that he would not be able to walk long distances again. An act of faith and heroic courage, doctors are human, they can make mistakes, God rewards bravery, his power has no limits."

"The righteous is brave as a lion." Proverbs 28:1.

"Let us approach the throne of grace with confidence , so that we may receive mercy and find timely help. Hebrews 4.16

"We know a Spanish/Russian couple, they come with two children of 2 and 3 years old, traveling 2,000km, they push a shopping cart in case they get tired, but the mother says that they only used it in the first stages, that now they don't use it at all, The children walking 25km a day, a miracle!

"For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of power, love and self-control." 2 Tm 7 The Camino de Santiago

HEROIC ENTREPRENEURS

"We found an almost 90-year-old man in the middle of the road, at seven in the morning, selling shells and sticks, handmade by him. He sold them for €1 and €3 to pilgrims. He comments that he has been doing it for years and that he loves it. . He says that he has had a hard life, he was born before the civil war, a childhood in extreme poverty he had to migrate twice to Switzerland to work and support his family, suffering from several tumors, heart attacks, he has 8 children, and he is still married, his wife There are 17 brothers and they all live!

An example of how our Lord rewards holiness, so many heroic virtues, an impressive testimony of entrepreneurship, sacrifice, courage, strength, generosity and austerity, serving the pilgrim."

"On the day I called, you answered me; "You made me brave with strength in my soul." Psalm 138.3

"We see three children from 6 to 9 years old, they tell us that they are always there from eight in the morning, in the middle of the road, selling shells and rosaries made by themselves. When we ask them why they do it, they explain to us that they want to buy a house for when they are older and that they do it to have fun because they like it a lot (what a great example for everyone, that's how all our jobs should be) that they want to be business entrepreneurs. older people, they have absolute confidence. How wonderful, how the Lord shows us with the smallest things the example of how to be a family business, in full rule, how great the Lord is with these little ones of yours!

III. Personal improvement: Physical, psychological and spiritual challenge. The desert.

We give too much importance to the things of the world, to having money and work, to living with a certain comfort, the reality is that in the final judgment of life, we will only be judged in love, for how much we love God, our neighbor, to the family, to the mission and that was entrusted to us, when we take care of and make our resources available to others, or waste them.

Many times we are full of devotions, but without fulfilling the maxim of priority to practice the virtues.

The plan of salvation carries with it tests, difficulties, whose objective is to perfect us in love, purify us from sin, our defects and help us fulfill the plan that God has in each of us, which is why we must prepare to face a combat, that can overcome them with virtue.

The dynamics of the test are always the same, according to the tradition of the church, it occurs where our area is weakest and most vulnerable, the objective is to purify our defect and elevate us to a higher step of virtue, to enable us to assume a greatest work, in the divine will. If we pass the difficulty with virtue, we receive "merit" and divine graces, thus we will enter another stage of greater spiritual growth and abundance, but if we do it with defect, the test will increase in a spiral of increasingly greater problems, that will strengthen our defect, to finally produce wounds in the heart, opening doors to the enemy and much greater spiritual attacks, much more difficult to heal.

Temptation increases when there is sin, this purification comes so that we identify our weakest, most vulnerable area and thus be able to ask and work on its healing.

Growing up hurts! We are all on the way to imitate Jesus, that is the challenge of a Christian. The virtue of sacrifice, and risking trusting in those who can do everything, is the basis for acquiring many others. You can only overcome yourself if you rely on grace, endure pain and go through trials with virtue. Along the way, sometimes we will feel exhausted, we will believe that we can't take it anymore, that we are in a dead end street, that is when we will find new limits in ourselves, that is the moment where you surpass yourself. You have to climb the mountain, cross the desert, to make progress, to strengthen yourself, because you can always do more, only in this way will we get closer to the best and become like Christ.

“Be Perfect as your Father is perfect.” Matt 5:48

The path is psychic, physical and spiritual healing. We have seen many testimonies of sick people, with depression, cancer, injured knees and ankles, who have been healed, who have returned the following year recovered. The road trains, it is the cradle of heroes and saints, that is contagious.

Being a physical and sporting challenge, an adventure, some preparation is needed, but if you go for it and do many kilometers, you will train as the stages occur.

You will also have to overcome blisters, injuries, tendinitis, rain, heat, fatigue, sometimes very narrow paths with brambles, the Carry little luggage and go on an adventure without many reservations, an austere life with little money will undoubtedly change you.

You learn to walk by walking, and you have to go for it! The journey allows us to have a learner mentality, to open ourselves to something new, enduring pain, each step requires effort and suffering, we clearly realize that this is the only price of growth and improvement, accompanied by continuous presence and divine guidance, so close!

Technological advances have not managed to erase the inner emptiness of the human being, man continues to concentrate on the exterior, the interior appears as an unexplored and unknown world.

There is no method that reveals the human spirit with X-rays.

The greatest danger of our time is to seize material advances without being prepared, morally or spiritually, to use them for the appropriate goals, in line with the Divine will and make of ourselves a God and the means an Idol.

The secret to achieving higher goals consists of dominating our passions, helped by grace, and the path teaches us how to do so.

We need to delve into a deeper personal knowledge, what prevents us from being free?, understand how to overcome it and face it, undertake a fight, to be better, methodical self-education helps, but grace, divine help and the path will be necessary. provide to. External progress requires greater internal progress, to avoid falling into psychic disorders, and to be able to travel the path successfully.

It is not possible to speak three The Camino de Santiago languages, or go to daily mass and not be able to hear the voice of God, nor know the language of our own heart! We must not allow ourselves to be controlled by knowledge, or having, or power, or by Christian practices empty of content, or by superficiality and dispersion in our devotions and prayers, if we are not able to dominate our nature.

<sup>133</sup>, overcome our defects, despising, murmuring, judging, envying, not forgiving, getting angry, disobeying, not compromising, being disorderly, indecisive, distrustful, arrogant, superficial, imprudent, impatient, greedy, ungrateful, inconstant, unjust, unmortified, obstinate, susceptible, false and forgetting about the most needy, thus we will never be free people, we will always continue to be slaves.

Our will and intelligence must be at the service of the practice of virtues, imitating the Master, the only model, accompanied by a life of grace, frequenting sacraments, fasting, penances and charity, aspiring to be the best version of ourselves, ascending to the maximum our demands towards God and our neighbors, especially those closest to us.

How to develop virtues? The greatest is love, the only one that has the strength and power necessary to overcome and endure the greatest trials, with compassion and forgiveness.

In the dynamics of human growth, for a seed to grow and mature, it must live in an environment of warmth, affection, full of nutrients, physical, psychological and spiritual, in trust, with a climate of psychological rest, which allows the development of all the potentialities. To govern is to bring forth the perfections for which we are responsible, to seek their growth. We can only promote it if we are able to provide them with a truly humane environment of trust.

From an anthropological point of view, growth begins with self-care, with self-love, this is our first natural tendency. Nature must be satisfied to promote our “being”, healthily, as the first commandment of the law tells us: “You shall love God and your neighbor as yourself.”

IV. Unmatched experience of brotherhood and friendship.

The road is a meeting place between diverse cultures, economic and social strata. Especially among entrepreneurial hospitaleros who serve pilgrims, parishes and businesses, who have grown up in the culture of giving of Christian charity. One of the seven works of mercy that we are asked to do as Christians is to “help the pilgrim.”

El Camino is the best meeting agency in the world, with two thousand nationalities. The experience of being family, of friendship, united, sharing the same journey, with its challenges, opens the heart. We all walk, without cultural, social, or economic barriers, we understand each other, despite speaking different languages, French, German, English, Chinese, it is a The Camino de Santiago unique experience in the entire world. It can be said that Christian universality comes to life. Without a doubt, the most special thing about the path are the testimonies of so many pilgrims, who open their hearts, in that experience of friendship and family, of helping each other, with people from all over the world, in an unparalleled adventure! Pilgrims of all ages walk, with the same spirit of improvement. We meet, walking, in the accommodations, in the daily masses, in the supermarket, surprising things happen to us together, as pilgrims we are never a stranger, we are surrounded by hospitable people, capable of offering their houses, food, love and help to welcome us. It is in this experience of encountering the other that the journey makes us live the gospel, where we discover what God wants from us, where you know yourself better.

Many pilgrims not only repeat their experience over and over again, but they even discover their late vocation for service, leave everything and stay to live on the road welcoming pilgrims, or create projects with a sense of service similar to what they have experienced there. , which had nothing to do with his previous life.

Universality vocation and mission of the church<sup>135</sup>

Being a church has a universal vocation to holiness and apostolate and that is reflected in the path. The faith of those who allow themselves to be guided by the hand of God, knows that holiness is not something for the privileged: that the Lord calls us all, that He expects Love from everyone: from everyone, wherever they are; of everyone, regardless of their status, nationality, culture, religion, or profession. All situations and circumstances of life must be a place and means of communion with the Lord. The Christian vocation to holiness is, at the same time and inseparably, a universal call to the apostolate, announcing with their lives that the Almighty loves us and wants to save everyone. The divine call to holiness also implies the mission of freeing creation from disorder and reconciling all things with the Most High; that is, to sanctify the world.

«All things on earth, including material creatures, earthly and temporal activities of men, must be brought to him, according to the purpose that he has given them, knowing how to see their ultimate supernatural destiny in Jesus Christ:

“For the Father wanted to place in Him the fullness of all being and through Him to reconcile all things to Himself, restoring peace between heaven and earth, through the blood that He shed on the cross. (Col 1, 19 and 20).

Why are bonds, the experience of relationships of friendship and brotherhood so important for man?

As human beings our first vocation is relational.

We are linked beings; We are born from others, only by living with others and for others can we find our destiny.

The crisis of modern individualism shows us the insufficiency of this vision, in which the person, in his selfishness, tends to isolate himself from his environment and from others, locked in his own family.

That is why the attack today against the family, for its essential role in overcoming this individualism. The family is a primary human school, where relationships, such as children, brothers, spouses and parents, daughter-in-law, father-in-law, brothers-in-law, godparents, cousins, etc., are learned to live all the bonds that touch our being. This is how we find our place in the world and we can open ourselves to others and to God.

What is the origin of the problem of the identity of today's man? In order for the family to clarify its identity, it must not be an island, that is, it must not close itself in on itself, it must create a community. The family will only be able to perform its relational function, and carry out its divine <sup>136</sup>mission, if it is able to join a network of broader relationships that define it, only when it unites with other families its true identity is revealed.

“Let everyone look at how they build.” 1 Cor 3:12

Foundations of the human being: strength is relationship.

Without solid, deep, intimate relationships, we are weak, to build them, let us remember the diamond, symbol of love.

Our family relationships are malleable, they are entrusted to us as a creative task, always flexible.

In the Bible, the house, the home, is built in justice, seeking the common good, but it is important that words become works, and that works do not remain just words. The problem today is that love is not understood as something lasting and

136 “No family is an Island.” Jose Granados Garcia

It is difficult for us to think that it can serve as a foundation for life. However, LOVE means RISK, and requires virtues; such as trust, generosity, charity, hope, capacity for sacrifice, strength, humility, sweetness, mercy, loyalty, commitment, honesty, virtues that are not learned in school, and whether in religious communities, churches, family or through great suffering and divine graces.

How to build solid relational foundations?

If we want to support a large load, rigidity will not work, we need to be flexible, to become robust, a family must be dynamic and live in elastic relationships, this will make it more solid.

We will have to establish our roots, they are important, not only because we want to rest on them, but because we will have to gain height, to build is to rise, to be in continuous change, conversion.

The essential thing in relationships is not security, but rather the ability we have to expand and expand.

Our world is characterized by an unstable environment, the ground shakes, there are risks of earthquakes. In this situation with a completely individualistic culture, where nothing is said about us or about relationships, in a digital world, with a subject that society tends to isolate, it makes us very fragile, because what is weak is what is isolated.

In this situation it is necessary to use other strategies to build a family. Haven't the Japanese built dynamic anti-earthquake buildings?

The example is that of a Gothic temple that has many columns, it will be more stable and will be able to support more weight, if more columns support it, the same thing happens with the person and the families.

The strength of the person is in their relationships, in the solidity and intimacy of their bonds, in their Christian community, in the union with people who share values, between mother and child, between wife and husband.

The true help of the family and community consists of making it capable of supporting itself, in order to shelter many more.

Not any relationship is valid, we must set limits on toxic relationships to protect our loved ones. Because if we want to endure storms and help, we will have to be able to carry ourselves with love and the example of healthy and virtuous relationships.

All pure love comes from God, without him we will not be able to love ourselves or our neighbors healthily, which is why we must cultivate relationships that bring us closer to him, being in community, being a church.

True love for one's neighbor is not possible without loving God<sup>137</sup>, because he is the source of all love. Nor can we say that we truly love God without loving our neighbor.<sup>138</sup>

To forge bonds, it is necessary to make ourselves vulnerable, therefore, strength depends on our ability to show fragility, this has already been said by Saint Paul:

“When I am weak then I am strong.”
1 Cor 12 10.

You have to open yourself to the person and this forces you to lose control, you have to renounce yourself and your will, only in this way will we enlarge life, only by relying on others will we have greater stability, this route passes through the emotional world, because this is where we become vulnerable and are able to welcome the other.

What happens when affections are silenced?

It is very important to talk about affection to understand the stability of love and family.

For example, we experience it with autistic people and we see the seriousness that emotional lack entails in them. A group of autistic people with a very high IQ, super smart, but incapable of putting themselves in the other's shoes, of empathy, at

The final result, despite their high intelligence, is that they are very fragile people.

Selfishness, of not putting yourself in the other's place, is like seeing the world without colors. It is the personal history and intimacy that helps us to know and understand the other, this is key to forming bonds and getting out of loneliness.

The opposite can also happen, affection can be just a superfluous emotion or a feeling that makes us withdraw into ourselves, distrusting our architect and Father God.

We must distinguish between emotion and affection, the latter supposes the presence of the other in me and therefore has a direction, it points to a bond, there is a feeling that seeks a stable relationship with the loved person to build a we, this is wanted by God . However, excitement is just a rocket that takes off and leaves orbit.

Affections or feelings require time to build, only then will they acquire solidity.

To remain is to remember, to build on rock it is essential to be able to remember. The memory seems fragile, we complain about bad memory, but it is our history that shapes our identity. We have an example when we suffer a trauma and forget who we are, this produces a strong crisis, in a situation like this, how can we put our life back together?

Trusting the people who love you, your husband, your children, your community, they preserve the memories and witness the Truly, they are capable of explaining life to you, of putting images in order.

That is why it is important to reflect, celebrate, our history, thanking God and remembering the importance of our relationships with others, with family and community, to build and cement memory, and that it survives in others. We have some examples in the diaries that are offered to the virgin with offerings, thanks and requests throughout the year; in family protocols and plans that remind us to unite mission, family and community values. It demands sacrifice, time, that cements love.

There is a key commandment that <sup>139</sup>requires parents to remember the original covenant of God and man. Memory unites generations, helps to understand others, memory makes compassion possible, that is why it is important to value some family practices, such as celebrating consecrations, anniversaries and remembering good moments that the marriage, family, and community had. and special Marian and liturgical days. Celebrating and remembering is loving.

Thus, education is introducing us to a common memory, making each other participate in the roots that have led us to where we are today. We have the sublime example in the Bible, which records the love story of God with man.

The one who cements the rock is Christ.

Anyone who hears these words and does them is comparable to a wise man who built his house on the rock.

The rain came down, and the rivers came, and the winds blew, and beat against that house; and it did not fall, because it was founded on the rock. Mt 7

We build the family on memories, words, fruits of the tree, materials that in themselves are fragile and through them our life becomes solid, but what makes the relationship strong, which is what cements the foundation, is Christ. God is the ultimate foundation of everything, he makes us strong, he is the rock. He works in our life in the family, he is the one who strengthens relationships.

Christianity is relationship, it speaks of the relational vision of man. Christ is always defined in relation to the Father and the Holy Spirit, his figure has a relational character.

We are worth what our relationships are worth, those that have given birth to us, those that sustain us. The basic relationship is the relationship with God, from which all stable relationships are born and grow.

Saint Ignatius explains the "Principle and foundation of our existence", what gives us sustenance and consistency, it is the beginning that helps us recognize the end, that is, the mission for which we have been created.

Christ has come to remind us of the Father, an origin that the Christian liturgy recalls, it is a place of memory, where we remember the origin of love that took place in the sacrament of love, Christ, who set everything in motion.

This is what you find on the path and you will not find it on any other sporting path, an openness to brotherhood, to friendship, without barriers, without concealments, without fear, the path transcends you and allows you to open your heart to love, to the unknown, to share with people so different from you, is a unique experience in the entire world.

V. Learning and inner knowledge: Awareness of mission and plan.

The path leads us to establish a relationship with the Lord, to a deeper interior journey, where you can meet him. It is by entering into intimacy with God that allows you to see your misery, your defects and weaknesses, also those virtues that you did not see, because perhaps you have been told so many times that you were not worth it, that you end up believing it, your wounds come to the surface and This is how they heal with the love of a god that covers all those shortcomings.

It allows you to understand how to achieve greater physical, emotional, psychological and spiritual balance, and obtain answers to so many questions. God speaks continually on the road, to your heart, through the events, the people you meet, phrases written on the road, the gospel of the day and an endless number of voices that spoke incessantly, because now you are much more attentive, awake and receptive, because all your senses are sharpened.

Sport and fatigue elevate your spirit and soul and help you gain perspective about your life, it allows you to leave your earthly self, your consciousness opens, being able to capture every detail, to connect dots, this is how you understand the message that God wants to give you right away is like a direct line connection with the holy spirit, because his promise in the beatitudes is to assist the pilgrim, in an extraordinary way.

Awareness of mission, objectives. Plan: <sup>140</sup> Execution and measurement.

We are all unique to God with a specific mission, which we must discover. We have received this life freely, we are the fruit of others and we have a responsibility with our generation and those to come, only we can carry out that task, since it is unique, it will fall on you whether you are prepared or not.

The question we must ask ourselves is, how will this mission benefit our family and society?

Some of the concerns of parents regarding the education of their children focus on the future of work, and they place less interest in other more important topics, such as their relationship with God, the practice of his virtues and especially charity, coherence of life, preparation for marriage, with its values and principles, maturity or ability to think more about others than themselves, their vision, and judgment or common sense when executing their life project. based on spiritual, moral, family and apostolic foundations.

The difficulty that progress entails requires strengthening ties, in all areas. Life is full of unforeseen events as a result of our mistakes, secrets, litigation, catastrophes, wrong cultural practices, economic crises, unexpected expenses, deaths, illnesses, they can also involuntarily cause us to lose control of the process, without control and control.

previous plan guided by divine will, we will end in failure. It is necessary to have a plan and a common pact to govern family and community, to guide it in values towards a mission.

It is key to involve the greatest number of family and community members in a process of learning and continuous improvement, aimed at strengthening knowledge and trust among its members.

What problems can we encounter along the way?

The first will be not knowing the root of the problems, not knowing how to identify our wounds, to heal them. The second is lacking knowledge of oneself, identifying talents and true weaknesses, accepting our limits, and healthy self-esteem. The third, not properly understanding the model to follow, Christ, or what vice and virtue consist of. Finally we will need to get closer to grace, sacraments, retreats, places of pilgrimage, to have the necessary strength to promote<sup>141</sup> it, a spiritual direction and Christian community will be very necessary in this process.

Understanding that in a Christian community, the members who represent it are chosen by others for their dedication and experience of the Lord, their virtues, their training and capacity for moral teaching, at the service of a just cause. Thus we will have to rely on them, monitoring the project will allow us to adapt unforeseen events from the initial plan.

With different styles; Romanesque, Gothic, Mudejar and Renaissance, along the way you will travel through the history of our culture. You will find cathedrals, churches, palaces, hospitals, stately homes, Roman and medieval bridges and roads, an architectural and cultural framework worthy of study. Places, routes, fountains, villages, in addition to the history of thousands of pilgrims who have passed through that same place over the centuries, who have left an indelible mark, there is so much historical wealth that we find along the way that this considered a world heritage site by UNESCO.

You will be able to savor the gastronomic and wine delicacies. You will visit the best areas of Spain to eat cod, suckling pigs, stews, octopus, pancakes, meats and seafood, authentic delicacies, and you will be able to enjoy the wines, since the routes that run through Spain cross two of the main wine regions of the country: Ribera from the Duero, Rioja, and of course, also Galician wines.

The different pilgrimage routes to Santiago de Compostela treasure more than a thousand years of history, traveling through towns, villages and cities with great tradition, cultural, monumental, architectural and gastronomic wealth that attracts hundreds of thousands of pilgrims and tourists from all over the world every year. all parts of the world. Traveling to Santiago is not simply taking a tourist or sports tour, it is all that, but much more.

It is to meet the religious roots of each person and revive a path of inner transformation, is walking, at the rhythm of other centuries.

Especially important to highlight is the story of the "Holy Chalice" of Christ in Leon within the Collegiate Church of San Isidoro.

Palace and Pantheon of Kings.

In the 11th century. 1050 AD, in the kingdom of Leon, which occupied half of Spain at that time, the Holy Chalice arrived, in the regency of kings Ferdinand I (The Great) and Dña. Sancha, to their palace, later the relics also arrived. of San Isidoro. In this place a "Royal Pantheon" was built, where there was previously a monastery of Augustinian monks, who were the ones who later took care of the church.

Saint Isidore was a bishop who lived during the year 600 AD. He was a counselor of nobles, he helped the kings in the reconquest, in the fight against the Muslims, he was a warrior like Santiago.

The kingdom of Leon played a leading role in the reconquest (a period in the history of the Iberian Peninsula that dates from 780 AD until the end of the Nasrid kingdom of Granada in 1492). It played an important role in the formation of the successive Christian kingdoms of the western peninsula, from which the counties of Castile and Portugal emerged, which later gave rise to the independent kingdoms of Castile (1065) and Portugal (1139). The remaining territories of the Leonese crown were united with those of the emerging Castilian kingdom to form the Crown of Castile in 1230.

The library houses 155 manuscript Codices with historical and literary importance, of "incalculable value."

It has approximately 2000 volumes, dating from the 10th to the 18th century. In addition to 300 incunabula books (a large number if we take into account that they are the first books made with the printing press). About 1,050 volumes of rare books, printed from the 16th to the 18th century. Specifically, "the Codex Biblicus Legionensis", from 960 AD, one of the five complete Bibles preserved in the world. With a diplomatic and documentary collection made up of 809 diplomas (royal, pontifical, ecclesiastical and private documents), several handmade bibles, canon law documents of great intellectuals, pilgrims and scholars, who write their works, and make codices and lives of saints

What is a codex? They are handwritten books that have historical and literary importance, of inestimable value, they served as a model to make many others.

Another key fact to consider that it is the true chalice that resides in Leon and specifically in the collegiate church, is that the place is also the cradle of European parliamentarism and the origin of democracy.

Around the year 1188 AD, the first courts in history, laws of justice, were approved. For the first time, a King listens to the people, commits to respecting their rights and freedoms, decreeing the first 17 European laws to favor particular interests, such as the right to private property.

They are the first documents of rights and freedoms, included by UNESCO as "memory of the world", written testimony of the parliamentary system.

Another important fact is that the Sistine Chapel is the Pantheon of Kings, royal cemetery, where 33 kings and queens, infant counts of the various dynasties of the 11th and 12th centuries are buried

Origin and history of the chalice of the last supper of Christ

Around 1070 AD the chalice was given to the eldest daughter of King Ferdinand I the Great and Queen Sancha, to Doña Urraca, who upon receiving it donated her jewels to cover it, as it was a simple bowl.

Studies and research confirm the connection of this Chalice with the cup used by Christ at the Last Supper. The inner bowl, which forms the chalice, is the cup that was venerated until the 4th century, the bowl used by Christ at the Last Supper, venerated by the first Christians.

The sources narrate how the aforementioned relic was found in the Holy Sepulcher of Jerusalem, from the 1st to the 4th century, in the year 1009 AD, in the city that was sacked by Al-Hakam.

Through two documents found in the Al-Azhar library, in Cairo, a world-renowned museum, researchers have shown that in the 11th century, when Egypt was going through a great famine, the Caliph Al Mutansir asked all the peoples for help. and the only one who helped him was Emir of Denia, a small taifa of the Iberian Peninsula, (Spain). He sent ships with food to Egypt, and the Caliph, as a thank you, gave him the onyx bowl that made up the chalice.

On the trip to the bowl, a corner was torn off with a curved Arabic knife. The powerful Egyptian caliph, Saladin, wanted to keep a part of the bowl in order to cure his daughter who was very sick, since she considered herself that the chalice had healing powers.

The kingdom of León was governed at that time by Ferdinand I the Great, one of the most powerful Kings in Christendom, who, with a view to attacking Valencia, made a deal with the Emir of Denia to stop the war in exchange for him He will give the bowls that formed the chalice to the Leonese king.

We know that in the end Denia was not attacked by Ferdinand I.

In the library of "Cairo", they have found a document from the 14th century, narrating this exchange between the caliphates, which shows that it is the cup of Christ, since you can see the cut in the bowl at the top of the Chalice of Leon. It is also proven that the agate stone in the bowl comes from a quarry in Jerusalem.

What are the reasons that invite us to ensure that Leon's chalice is the Chalice of the Last Supper?

Firstly because it is the chalice of Christ, the most documented of all those in the world, that it is the true one.

Secondly, because it arrives in Spain, with one of the most powerful kings of Catholic Christianity: Ferdinand I the Great, to a "palace of kings", to a kingdom with a key role, before the formation of successive future ones. Christian kingdoms of the western peninsula. Kingdom that played a key role in the reconquest for the Muslim expulsion.

Thirdly, the chalice is in a place that is the cradle of the first laws of Justice in Europe. First documents of rights and freedoms, included by UNESCO as "memory of the world", written testimony of Leon's parliamentary system. Because God is king of justice.

Where The Chalice is kept, it houses the library with more than two thousand copies, 155 Codices of incalculable value, and the Codex Biblicus Legionensis, one of the five most important Bibles in the world.

It is logical that the Lord would allow this great wealth to reside on the Camino de Santiago, in one of the three most important pilgrimages of Catholic Christianity, so that it would be a source of graces and blessings for thousands of pilgrims who would pass along the ages. The custody resides in a basilica, formerly a monastery and a palace and pantheon of kings!... where the King of Kings should be!

Finally, the exposition of the Holy Sacrament stands out uninterruptedly throughout the entire day, something that does not happen in Valencia, "you will recognize it by its fruits."

Other fruits are that the Royal Collegiate Church of San Isidoro de León is one of the most important Romanesque complexes in Europe that has more than a thousand years of history.

An important legacy that despite these vicissitudes of history, thanks to the care of the canons who have always inhabited this Collegiate Church, it has been possible to preserve an important historical-artistic, architectural and bibliographical legacy that has survived to this day and today can be enjoyed. It is evident that there are proven facts of extraordinary events and graces in the place that would justify the presence of the miraculous Chalice.

VII. Assess what is important: Light luggage. 143

The Camino de Santiago also gives us a spirit of poverty, it makes us realize what we carry in our backpack.

with many things we don't need. The appropriate weight to carry on the road should not exceed 10% of your weight, that is why it is necessary to carefully measure what is priority, and differentiate it from what is superfluous. You only realize when you have traveled many kilometers, that every gram is noticeable, you realize. Realize that you need very little for the trip and to be happy, and that the only thing the burden does is make you suffer more and enjoy the journey less, it is useless wear and tear.

This exercise allows you to live in greater sobriety. Even if we lack what is necessary, the path sometimes forces us to strip ourselves away and abandon ourselves to divine providence. There are many testimonies along the way, of people who have given in, giving things, food, helping someone who was most in need, and shortly after situations have arisen in which not only has the apparent material lack been more than compensated, but Thanks to this, it has been possible to achieve better. The word of God is fulfilled:

"He who gives abundantly receives more than he gave; but he who is stingy ends up in poverty. He who is generous prospers; "He who gives to others enriches himself."

Proverbs 11:24-2,

What are the dangers and threats of possessions. What is greed?

---

Wealth can cause a dilemma and can imply a lack of humanity. Goods are decided by God so that we manage them helping society, however great injustice occurs, many have everything while others die of hunger.

The seventh commandment exhorts<sup>144</sup> us not to withhold the good of our neighbor, nor harm the goods of others in any way.

“In economic matters, respect for human dignity requires the practice of the virtue of temperance, to moderate attachment to the goods of this world; of justice, to preserve the rights of others and give them what is due to them; and of solidarity, following the golden rule and according to the generosity of the Lord, who, though rich, became poor for you so that you might become rich through his poverty” (2 Cor 8:9). No. 2407 Catechism.

“The right to private property, acquired or received fairly, does not nullify the original gift of the land to humanity as a whole. The universal destination of goods continues to be paramount, although the promotion of the common good requires respect for private property, its right and its exercise” No. 2403 Catechism.

“The ownership of a good makes its owner an administrator of providence to make it bear fruit and communicate its benefits to others, above all to those close to them” Cat.Nº 2404

“The owners of personal and consumer goods must use them with temperance, reserving the best part for the guest, the sick, the poor” Cat. No. 2405

Furthermore, possessions cannot satisfy our desire for happiness, let's see the reasons:

- I. The human being needs a spirit to live, that pulls him, to achieve his great aspirations.
- II. The burden and work to maintain possessions can harm our physical, psychological, and spiritual health, not only making us unhappy but also worsening our quality of life, tiring us, taking away quality time from our loved ones, from establishing disinterested bonds with family, friends and community, time that allows us to be available.
- III. They provide us with a false security and self-sufficiency, which can prevent us from moving forward, striving and improving ourselves, to achieve a goal that only by practicing the virtues can we achieve and will be the key to our happiness. They can make it difficult for us to leave our comfort zone, isolating us without being able to establish authentic relationships, hindering our ability to love, causing disputes, envy, and rivalries around us.
- IV. It threatens our spiritual health.- 145

1. Pride. - It emerges more easily in those who have a certain superiority, at some level in life, money, power, talent, possessions, etc...
Arising arrogance, pride, vanity, presumption and vainglory. An air of smugness, which does not need no one, a desire for independence, this causes spiritual blindness, making it difficult to objectively contemplate reality. We are moved to work for our own excellence, not that of others. It seeks esteem, approval and praise, it prevents us from growing, accepting our own limitations, listening to fraternal correction, it is distrustful, its desire for prominence makes it difficult to go unnoticed, it is full of arrogant attitudes. Pride weakens any form of love. When there is maturity, one relativizes one's importance, one does not sink into one's defects or praise one's achievements, one knows how to look and dwell on the positive aspects of others, one knows how to love, it takes time to get to the simple things.

2. Ambition.- Honor is a human wealth that represents a value more important than material wealth, the virtue of magnanimity is concerned with honor, greatness or excellence is its formal object. Ambition is opposed to magnanimity, in the desire to unjustly conquer undeserved honors, seeking the shortest path, instead of the most costly,
3. Laziness.- It is the mother of all vices. It is negligence, carelessness, and boredom that prevents us from doing what we must do for our good and the common good. It is the delay in carrying out our actions, it creates addition, it always goes further. The main virtues and values contrary to laziness are: Diligence, perseverance, courage, decision, effort, strength, habit, justice, maturity, obedience, perseverance, will, sacrifice, and responsibility. The main evils caused by laziness are not putting our talent, our time and resources at the service of others, is the greatest enemy of perfection and perseverance, of our life plan and love of neighbor, the selfishness of I first and I want predominates, it produces the poverty of laziness and intolerance, excessive relaxation, comfort, prevents the search for solutions to problems, challenges, to develop our attitudes, makes it impossible for us to face unpleasant situations that are difficult to resolve. It is a cause of abandonment, apathy, routine, negligence, contempt, disinterest, laziness, disorder, carelessness, hesitation, selfishness, unpunctuality, lack of rigor. Laziness does not stop to think, reflect, read, write or investigate, it does not form or inform itself, it leaves everything for later. Physical laziness causes many diseases, from obesity to memory loss, it kills the mind and body. Create your own world, tomorrow, then... degenerating the ability to act, ruining businesses and professional careers, opportunities are lost.

It prevents us from being a good father of a family, an exemplary husband, educating our children correctly and loving our spouse, it causes the abandonment of our personal image, damaging our health and distancing us from society, it produces reluctance, sadness and an ossified will. It generates cowardice, allowing itself to be used, it kills friendships.

4. Disorders in pleasures.- Pleasure is not bad, ordered and moderated to a higher end, to an honest moral good. Linking pleasure to good acts so that they are easier to fulfill, on the way to fulfilling our duties, is something lawful. The danger lies in desiring pleasure, independently of the end, and not as medium, then it becomes evil. If we act solely for pleasure, we lose our limits and fall into disorder. Some examples would be excessive spending, sensual pleasure (sight, body, touch), food, etc...

5. Greed.- It is the passion that drives us to save and acquire possessions for our sole enjoyment. Greed does not know how to put limits on its acquisitions; it generates a kind of spiritual anxiety, which slowly diminishes the ability to care for others and love, leading to aggression, even violence resulting from excessive demands. It is a passion that seeks spiritual pleasure in its material goods, instead of in people. It is the root of great psychological and emotional problems, of many depressions and isolations.
6. Commerce.- The danger of commerce begins when everything in our lives has a price, when it becomes solely and exclusively an exchange resulting from our individual interest. If we only work to achieve economic benefit, we will end up distrusting others, this loss of trust will open the door to all kinds of problems, sadness, resentment, envy and deception.
7. Usury: It involves lending at a high price, doing favors in exchange for high remuneration, charging excessively, we could include paying very low salaries or not complying with our tax obligations.

8. Overexploitation of resources.-

Human exploitation, which harms the quality of life of our workers, is highly ineffective, not only because of the bad environment that is slowly generated, with symptoms of dissatisfaction, stress, depressive symptoms, but also because of the risks In terms of personnel turnover in our staff, tremendously unproductive.

Chapter

How to change the world?

Conquest of eternal life for the human race.

I. Keys to the success of projects in the divine will We do not exist as an independent and separate entity, many things that we believe can be false, they can be the result of wanting to accommodate our illusions, desires, fears, ego, perhaps from an erroneous education, for reading manipulated sources, for not investigating more diligently, even for not dedicating the necessary time to pray, delving into different sources. That is why it is important to contrast everything with the biblical message, spiritual advice, external support and solid virtuous sources that are bearing fruit.

“By their fruits you will recognize them.” Luke 6

The Christian faith, anthropology, and economic and social science teach us that financial capital is just an instrument to develop what is truly important. It that endures and survives, are the fruits of the actions of men with outstanding values, for their Faith and charity, the great causes for which they fought, for the benefit of their generations, with a seal marked by the divine.

"For whoever wants to save his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it." Mt 16-25

<sup>146</sup> The keys to the success of any project are in the gospel. How is a successful plan different from one that fails?:

1. The path of love, growth, undoubtedly involves taking risks, always starting again, being able to change, evolve, to be better. To identify members inside and outside the community, who help us, channels to carry out this project, as their own vocation. In a successful plan there is always a leader who surrenders and gives everything, a driving force who takes risks for his family and community, pastor, apostle, entrepreneur. With just one person who converts and risks, everyone will be converted. We have to launch ourselves,

"If God is with us, who can be against us?"

R, 8-31

"For just as through the disobedience of one man many were made sinners, so also through the obedience of one man many will be made righteous."

2. They create projects that integrate the entire family and community, united in mission, values, participating and learning as a team. Promoting communication, prayer, contact with the Lord, united to read the imprint of God in the heart of each one, reinforcing virtues, educating weaknesses, necessary for the achievement of a common mission.
3. They learn, from study and apostolic and family experience, to strengthen all areas of their life; spiritual, psychic, physical, their relationship with God, family, friends, community, work, apostolate, they study, train and seek their personal growth, they work in a permanent combat against themselves. They provide mutual help, practicing virtues, within the community environment, a place where each one will undertake their process of change.

Understanding that what does not grow inexorably decreases, it will never remain static!

4. They know and experiment outside their own community, only in this way can the learning process and transformation become effective.
5. They struggle to acquire and integrate into their lives a solid, mature spiritual life, typical of the fight against sin, to carry out those personal changes, demands of an authentic Christian, in continuous conversion, evolution and growth, regardless of their age. and acquired wisdom. Government or professional knowledge is not enough if it has not integrated a process of constant development, from a humble attitude, always willing to let ourselves be done by the Lord, and others, accepting suffering and difficulties, with love, knowing that the allows, to purify our weaknesses and strengthen and deepen our intimacy with him, and capabilities, to achieve our mission on earth and reach heaven.

6. It is important to surround yourself with good advisors, to allow yourself to be helped and advised, with external support. The data show the difficulties, lukewarmness and inefficiency of families and communities, who travel alone, who isolate themselves, what is isolated is always weak.
7. The projects that are successful in facing their transformation are those that, by practicing the biblical mandate of charity, incorporate it into their way of life, that practice the works of mercy. Its members become interested and responsible in attending to noble causes, evangelizing, giving part of their time and money to support issues that transcend their individual and family interests, promoting a culture of solidarity and encounter, which little by little is permeating the community. project, training and strengthening young generations, preparing their future against future adversities.

8. They clearly know their mission, which is defined by everyone, it is witnessed with life, the word, it is achieved through prayer and action, acting together.

What is the moral development of the spiritual guide, a servant leader, a Christian who fights?

Without an ideal, there is no human life, this is the highest objective, a very lofty idea, to which we consecrate our lives. What should that ideal be? Christ. Bring it to all spheres of my life, to the home, to the coffee, to my environments, to my work, to all people. To be an apostle living the requirement of baptism, believing and experiencing the presence of the holy spirit and its charisms, to renew the world. Apostles who know that our fertility depends on our vital union with Him, that we seek the sanctification of men, and the establishment of a new temporal order, striving to fill us with the Christian spirit; the customs, the laws, the structures in which we live, bearing witness to life, work and word, in all fields, study, housing, rest, with total coherence, being the light of the world. Why God is:

The center of humanity.

The one that gives meaning to what happens to us.

The one who gives value to our human works.

The one who gives joy and fulfillment to desires.

He is the source of our true fortune, our Father and guide, he is EVERYTHING!

Without him there is nothing complete.

A Christian who fights, risks, but not unrealistically, recognizes the environment in which he moves, his circumstances, his possibilities of action, his realities and from there he pursues the ideal. He does not flee from reality, he seeks to penetrate it, like a new ferment, that tastes of Christ, he sees things as they are, not as he wants, he seeks to make his thoughts coincide with those evangelical criteria, because to love is to love, it is The Camino de Santiago 191

To try is to do good, it is to resolve material and spiritual misery, it is to seek a better world, in word and deed, it is to be firm in purpose and gentle in form, discerning the path and choosing teams, as the Lord chose. to the apostles, different, limited and he trained them.

Once the path is identified, it is put into action, the economy of redemption, passes through the necessary element of our action. God cannot do anything, if I do not do my part, and go and announce the good news to every creature. This is the divine mandate, although our Lord can do everything, he wanted to use us as instruments, so that we would have merit, "put the gift that each one has at the service of others", we are all members of a body that is Christ. "I am the vine and you are the branches; whoever abides in me and I in him, he bears abundant fruit, because without me you can do nothing." Jn 15

We have to recognize our weakness, be humble before the omnipotence of God, apostolic action springs from an interior life, it is not reduced to doing, but to being, since it is impossible to give what one is not, we cannot give Christ if we do not we have him with us.

There is the danger of heresy, inaction or activism. The search for balance invites you to pray, sacrifice and act, this is the triple lever of the spirit so that the works come out, it is necessary to spend a lot of time in prayer and sacrifice, living the cross, suffering, fulfilling your duties in the church, in your job, in your family.

The piety of the leader is action, study, which expands the action, it is universal in extension, he is interested in souls, his action is tireless, he never acts alone, he seeks to create a team and develop them.

The Lord asks for dedication, effort and sacrifice, until you lead a complete, pure, clean life, like a child of the truth. If you have minimal effort, you will have minimal results. Selfishness makes us fail. Intransigence is not worth making excuses. .

The leader is a soul responsible for his mission, who through action and from reality, reaches the ideal, takes apostolical responsibility for the work and for conquering souls. "You did not choose me, but I chose you." Jn 15. The Lord is the one who calls you.

His life strives to be exemplary and apostolic, a testimony of word and life down to the smallest details, he is not satisfied with the spirit of the world, he is not indifferent to evil, he does not show apathy for contradictory forms of thought, he is generous, he has great energy, kindness, discipline, character, industriousness, allowing Christ to form and mold him, he gives himself with charity and carries the message with light, enthusiasm and concern.

He does not live a bourgeois life, a Christianity of etiquette, of lukewarmness, it leads the way for men without knowing it and leads them to God.

Study the goal and the means to reach them, make a plan.

He uses his head to the service of the apostolate with tenacity, and his heart in service, he studies the goals, he prays insistently, The Camino de Santiago

It strengthens and offers itself, it perfects itself, it lives in the midst of the church, illuminating souls, it makes them flourish, among its qualities are: discipline, respect for the will of God even in the smallest things.

Another virtue that conquers is initiative. He is endowed with reason and free will, he is aware of his Christian dignity and is willing to respond to his vocation, even if he is stung, he does not passively contemplate what happens, but makes decisions to change the history that surrounds him, he awakens consciences with desire and vitality, make a plan, study the paths using your head and heart, reflect on possible failures. He doesn't get bogged down by obstacles. He knows that the world is for those who know where they are going, he does not wait to act for better times to arrive, because the Lord always chooses adverse times and circumstances to call us to work in his work! executes his plans.

He is a man of character, of perseverance, who does not bend, flexible, has an immense will, is bold, takes risks, like the apostles, men without prestige, without power, without money and without resources, they wanted to conquer the world by building on Christ, Without force and science, this was unthinkable! But the Lord told them: "I will be with you", they risked their lives, what would become of us if today those men had thought to be prudent? Pius XII was the one who already asked young people for this holy audacity, indiscretion, and courage placed at the service of good, a bold cry to promote social justice and international order.

The leader is also a prudent man, every initiative rides between audacity and prudence. A perfect character contemplates this balance.

But prudence is neither shyness, nor comfort, nor minimal effort, nor lack of horizons, nor fear of the ideal. Do not think that you should remain silent, although sometimes you have to be silent and choose the right moment. This may be charity, but in many moments this silence hurts like a whiplash, prudence is opening up to dialogue, not settling for what the other tells us, contrasting the sources, to know what is inside the other, adapting to the environment of the interlocutor and looking for the right moment. Don't be dazzled by the prudence of the Pharisees, because Christ removed their mask. You are doing badly if, through a voluntary work of apostolate, you fail to fulfill a serious duty of your office, because you can lose prestige and stop fishing for souls.

Prudence is simplicity, friendliness, naturalness, when it comes to evangelizing, without having that raised tone, without pretending or simulating, without posturing. It is prudence, visiting the Sanctuary to discern options, asking the boss to guide you.

It means having very specific purposes and not failing to fulfill them. If the strategies are many and prolonged, there will not be the strength to do so. "Fear the person who dedicates himself to a single purpose, he is almost invincible counting on the grace of God."

That man will arrive.

Generosity, a half-hearted desire is an unwillingness, check the thermometer of will.

Paul VI said, we are afraid of God, that he will ask too much of us, that he will make us saints, we must always be willing to give everything, trusting in him.

Many have said I can't take it anymore, but they approach the cross and say to God, what more can I do?... don't be afraid of the storm, in the sea, Christ is always in the boat, what happens is that he is asleep for That seems to derive. The servant does not know apathy, nor the lack of generosity, he is strong, he has courage, humanity is heroic. Another danger of apostolate is not daring to ask for anything more than the minimum effort, we must demand high goals, the call to the generosity of the Lord who tells us: "if anyone wants to come after me, deny yourself, take up your cross." and follow me", my prayers, my suffering, my actions, my testimony, all of this is incorporated into the mystical body of Christ, it produces fruit.

Only olive trees resist the passing of the centuries, they are ancient, twisted and tortured, but they attract the eyes of everyone, praise and admiration, we all carry our own cross, living in peace and dying in peace is not the goal of an apostle, you cannot be a fisherman. He who does not go deeper, who does not take risks, will never see miracles.

You will be able to experience failures, criticisms in understanding, but you will always see the fruit, the joy of the lost sheep returned to the fold, the brotherhood of souls that with us found the light, but you will have had to crush and grind yourself to be able to generate the flour, As long as you don't want to immolate yourself you won't have anything to offer.

We must throw ourselves into the madness of Calvary, the materialistic conception, superficiality, mediocrity, frivolity, the cult of pleasure, that does not go with Christ, sacrifice always has its reward. Christ is total insurance beyond all retirement, he covers all imaginable risks here and in eternal life, always a hundredfold, the tranquility of a right conscience, a flood of happiness, feeling like a brother to many, the security of company of the Lord who arranges everything and always tailors it to his chosen ones. That is why I am glad to suffer with Christ, said Saint Paul.

Pain is not always equivalent to punishment, it is necessary, it is not just the currency with which the debt is paid. Pain is a way in which the father's will over my life is manifested, an advance payment of life, it is the scalpel that has avoided a lot of disasters that could have happened to me, if I had not gone through those crosses. If you have faith you will see miracles with your eyes, you will stumble upon them, you will understand that there are many coincidences, which can only be explained by giving thanks to God.

When you act, do not trust only in your work, trust that God works with you and in the mystical body of Christ who live for others, a missionary arm supports you in the church, it is waiting in the rear. "Without me you can't do anything." Jn 15

God saw something great in poverty when, being able to have everything, he wanted to be born in a stable, something great he saw in pain when, being happy, he wanted to allow himself to be crowned with thorns, something great he saw in work, when, having created the universe, he wanted men to we would contribute our grain of sand.

“Nothing disturbs you, let nothing frighten you, whoever has God, lacks nothing”
St. Teresa of Jesus.

<sup>148</sup> Spiritual guides, they seek the presence of the spirit, they fight fervently against the flesh, the world and the devil, they live a life of grace, they listen and are docile to the divine will.

They create and direct the destiny of others and have authority because they are under the authority of the master following his commands.

They live without earthly security, although they possess all the riches and gifts, divine due to their closeness to the Most High, which allows His attributes to be reflected in them, they risk everything for the gospel and are protected, like their true disciples:

“Many are the afflictions of the righteous, but the LORD delivers him from them all .” Psalm 34

“He who does not put aside his father and his mother, his wife and his children, and his brothers and even himself, cannot be my disciple.” Luke 14:26

The beginning and development of a new project in the divine will is a process that takes place within the larger framework of the individual's life history, with many periods of uncertainty. But if any work dependent on others is characterized by “the use of virtue to obtain wealth”, in entrepreneurship the process is marked by “the application of virtue to generate wealth”, in both cases it is

Close to Christ: Great expectations

We were created to be the image of God to know him and love him and unite with him. To the extent that this is lived, we will become more like him, since he is the "Almighty".

Because the main characteristic of love is that it resembles what is loved, the closer we are to Him, the more we will perfect ourselves and reflect a light that everyone will see.

The pastor's journey begins in a spiritual combat, a serious fight against sin, the world and the devil, a deep life of worship and prayer, penance, fasting and charity. A relentless pursuit of divine will and guidance from the holy<sup>149</sup> spirit, with the habit of hard work, sacrifice and renunciation to save souls, and the confidence to take risks.

"Lack of faith is what I hate the most and forgive the least."

Mt 12 31. It is the sin against the Holy Spirit.

An orientation of delayed gratification, a strong ascetic life, which attracts many divine graces, the practice of works of mercy to earn divine mercy.

Suffering many moments of precariousness, he forges virtues, which are not learned in schools, but in churches, in the example of families and communities, through highly competitive sports, in social aid institutions, and in any job such as self-employed and entrepreneur.

The following phases consist of creating a world in the image of God.

Each one finds his own good, assuming the project that God has for him, to realize it fully: in effect, he finds his truth in said project and by accepting it, he becomes free. (Jn 8:32).

Mary, prophetess of the last times, and her lineage will be the ones who will crush the head of the serpent, she is our refuge for these times, that is why we must consecrate everything:

The true church will flee to the desert, it will have to go on a pilgrimage, there it will be fed for three and a half years, while the reign of the antichrist lasts. In these last and cruel persecutions, God placed the curse against the serpent for the glory of his Holy Mother, the salvation of his children, his lineage and the confusion of satan. The Most High with his Mother will raise up great saints, who will exceed in holiness all those who have existed before. That is why it is so important to consecrate yourself to the Virgin Mary at this end of the last times, to overcome evil. <sup>157</sup>

That is why we must consecrate ourselves to the Most Precious Blood of Jesus, it is the devotion desired by Jesus for this moment, the end of the last times, where the church like our Lord will have to suffer its worst agony. He asks us to accompany him in those hours when I sweat blood, because united with him we will do his same works, and he saved humanity and brought down the worst demons. Since there is no time for God, he knows each and every one of the people who will accompany him in that, the worst moment of his life, in which all his apostles abandoned him. Only in Gethsemane did God the Father give his son the Gift of strength, he asked for it three times and only there did he give it to him, it is for them that we must pray devoutly, the hours of Gethsemane, every Thursday from 11pm to 3am, so that the Lord protect us and not succumb to the most terrible trials that will come, to be protected and sealed, being filled with brave power, in these last impious and evil days (message of Jesus July 20, 1998).

Faced with the spiritual combat that we must face, in a pagan society, dominated by dark forces, the hardest that humanity will face, our Lord invites us to undertake projects that favor strengthening, mercy, healing, liberation, forgotten ministries and difficult to develop today in the church, that awaken to the truth and uncover hidden deceptions, because there can be no true charity without the truth.

II. Very necessary projects to protect us

We are a project of God, we must rediscover our calling, conquer the originality of our personality, rediscover our identity, unique and unrepeatable and abandoning ourselves to a provident God, to achieve an ideal that will make us free, that will develop all our natural and supernatural potentialities. discover where it is worth investing, for what we were created, and risk to achieve it, a personal family and community mission.

Living is developing, perfecting and projecting ourselves, exploiting our potential.

1. Consecrate your home as a Marian Shrine 166

Open the doors of your home to the Blessed Mother! In the same way as the Virgin has established herself in the original Shrine of Schoenstatt (Germany) and in many subsidiary shrines around the world, she also wants to establish herself in homes and from there distribute abundant gifts and graces for the family and her community. The first Home Shrine was blessed in Milwaukee (USA) in 1963. In the same way, today the Virgin comes to meet you to help you in the education of your children and those close to you. The family has to work. What is the mission that God wants for it? To consecrate it and offer it to the Lord. As an educator, she wants to help, she comes so that the three graces of all the sanctuaries can be poured out: Welcome, interior transformation and apostolic fruitfulness, joining together to participate in graces and offerings to all the Home Shrines of the world in a great network. How great you are, Mother, from your Sanctuaries! Because your presence is accompanied by the Holy Trinity! How many miracles have we seen! Acting from the weakest and most limited with great supernatural power. By attracting Mary to the home, the wife of the Holy Spirit, the Mother of God, with her comes the Holy Trinity to inhabit your home! How necessary it is to protect homes today with the presence of Mary, so that homes be transformed into Marian Shrines, let us ask our beloved Mother, Queen and victorious of Schoenstatt, to transform our home in his Sanctuary. There are 200 sanctuaries in the world, from there, she can help you, here is the list. 167

2. Help the poor and needy.

Poverty in the world is disconcerting. The richest 1% in the world accumulates almost twice as much wealth as the rest of the world's population in the last two years. 168 In Spain more than 30% live below the poverty line, with more than two million poor children. We must help projects that we know personally, that save lives and share values, some of these examples: "Fundacion Madrina", a Schoenstatt home sanctuary, which helps abandonment and violence, of mothers with babies from 0 to 3 years old, with special emphasis on adolescence, to allow their normalization and autonomy, moving families forward. The foundation distributes more than 20 tons of food a year, feeding more than 4,000 families, with more than 60 services a day and 2,000 pediatric services a year, with more than 350,000 emergency calls. During the pandemic, it was the only foundation that distributed meal. Helps children and women, mothers with children under 3 years of age, in situations of risk and social exclusion.

What a great work of Mercy!

3. Fasting groups<sup>170</sup>_____

Fasting is a call, present in the great prophets of the Bible, both to kings and men, a sacrifice of propitiation (because it propitiates God's mercy) that disarms God, suspending the sentences of his anger or the blows of his justice. . “Fasting subjects the flesh to the spirit, and the spirit to God, it brings God down to man,” living a strong divine experience. The testimonies are shocking; people cured of cancer, and of hidden diseases of the soul and body, addictions sanctioned, families far from the Faith are converted, children lost for 20 years appear, liberations, projects are raised in the divine will, very strong are some testimonies of priests living in a parish contaminated by drug trafficking and witchcraft, with many of their faithful atheists, in their first fast of 40 days, many of them come to confession and in the second fast many of their faithful fasted 40 days, with countless fruits.

The promotion of fasting in the church is a priority today, with support groups, since the manifestations of the spirit, in this “the era of the holy spirit”, are overcome with fasting. In these last times where we will see the greatest number of demons, the Lord asks us to fast. To his frustrated and discouraged disciples, who remained unable to cure a possessed, epileptic young man, Christ said:

“If you had faith, like a mustard seed, you would say to this mountain: ‘Move and it would move. But this kind of demon does not go away except with prayer and fasting.’” Matthew 17: 20-21.

We encourage you to train and ask for the grace of fasting on bread and water in our school, it is a grace that God grants to those consecrated to Mary. <sup>171</sup>

Why bread and water? <sup>172</sup> The answer is simple, everything is related to the Eucharist, Jesus did not tell us “I am the rice of life”, but “I am the bread of life”, that is why we eat bread. When we fast on Bread and water it helps us receive Christ, the bread of life. Why Wednesday and Friday? because we join everyone in the fasting of the church, venerating the day before and after, the institution of the Eucharist, which is on Thursday, and on Friday we join Christ in his passion, since Friday was when he died for we. Why 40 days? Why did his apostles and prophets do it throughout history, and Christ himself, fasted 40 days to train with power, defeat satan and prepare to carry out his mission, a death on a cross, enduring the terrible trials obeying the will of God the Father and thus we teaches how to do it. Our life as Christians consists of imitating the Master in order to do his same works.

Fasting must be done accompanied by prayer and works of charity to break chains, otherwise it will be a simple diet.

4. Create communities consecrated to Mary There can be no life in Christ, if there is no community, if there is no family, because God is family (Father, Son and Holy Spirit). Like the first Christians, the disciple must participate in the life of the Church and in the encounter with the brothers, living the love of Christ, praying, training, carrying out apostolate united in a common ideal, in a fraternal life of solidarity, this It is what defines an authentically Christian group. He must be accompanied, helped, stimulated by the community and its pastors in order to grow and mature in the life of the Spirit. The authentic Christian is in continuous formation and apostolate. The community contains an inexhaustible wealth, because they contain an immense variety of situations, ages, tasks, especially today, when the crisis of family life affects so many children and young people, these communities provide a space to be permanently formed in the faith. , grow and support each other, to begin missionary and apostolic work from there.

From its subsidiary shrines, spread throughout the world, the pilgrim shrine of the Schoenstatt Virgin comes to meet us in homes and invites us to live in<sup>173</sup> the Covenant of love, consecrated to Mary, with her presence and graces, strengthening and making the community fruitful.

174

On October 18, 1914, the Blessed Virgin sealed an Alliance with Father Kantenich and a group of young people, asking that she be established in the sanctuary and work miracles of grace from there, and they committed to strive for her sanctification, since then. many have consecrated themselves by welcoming Mary into their houses.

It is not only something devotional, strategic or pastoral, but "The Pilgrim Shrine of the Virgin of Schoenstatt" with its network of 200 sanctuaries around the world, is an irruption of graces and life, at the service of the new evangelization and transformation of families and our society.

Mary sets out: "Mary arose and set out quickly." She visits families to bring the same three graces: welcome, transformation and apostolic fruitfulness, which she gives in her daughter sanctuaries spread throughout the world. Cultivating close contact and collaboration with the parishes, since the parish priest can count on an evangelizing means that brings the most distant families closer to the church, and Maria from her small sanctuary forges supernatural links between people, promoting sacramental life and promoting with their thanks the collaboration in the parish to be a "community of communities and of 175 movements ».

It is organized in groups of 10 families or 4 patients. The Virgin goes from house to house in the family groups, visiting each one 3 days a month, and one week in the sick groups. The testimonies of the pilgrim virgin's passage through homes are shocking; people who come out of drugs, comas, miraculous sanctions, conversions, especially we see many moral and apostolic miracles, she is in charge of transforming the community where she pilgrims. We encourage you to go to your nearest sanctuary and become missionaries of the pilgrim virgin. .

4. Create projects, training and information schools that clarify doctrinal confusion and awaken to the truth. 177

The time of purification has arrived for the church, the first of the signs that indicate it is the great confusion, a direct attack on the truth, a time where the greatest errors will reign in the dogmatic, liturgical and disciplinary field, it will be a sign of the end of times.

The truth prevails whether we like it or not, because it is absolute, which is why we must seek it insistently, through research, study and prayer. In solid sources, with external criteria of legitimacy, through people who lack the interest to proclaim it and are brave to risk despite going against the current, because today lies reign everywhere and proclaiming the truth is an act of heroism, since it has of facing slander, loss of jobs and even death.

6. Strengthen marriage and family 185

Promote projects to highlight the beauty and importance of marriage and family, healing wounds in families, helping marriages in crisis, such as "Conjugal Love Project", based on the theology of the body of Saint John Paul II. Offering interdisciplinary training on marriage and family, which allows you to understand the meaning of the vocation to marriage, enabling you to collaborate in the work for the family in the different dioceses, parishes, associations or apostolic movements. We especially recommend this retreat to all married couples, especially those who carry greater suffering, the holy spirit has wanted to dwell in them and we have seen miracles of people already in the process of divorce, with tragic lives, of auditions, that the Lord in a single retreat has ordered, because when the Spirit touches you, it does not fix pieces of you, it makes you a new person, it restores you completely if you let yourself.

We recommend other training means that favor the defense of Christian principles, in the different areas that surround family life, to understand the scope and consequences of not following the fundamental truths of the gospel and the family, very special the Master of Family Pastoral, from the person and family association, pioneers in the creation of this master, instructing in the teachings of John Paul II 30 years ago. A formation not only necessary to provide objective criteria about the truths of faith, in our first mission as parents and guides, but also a rain of <sup>186</sup>grace from the holy spirit that acts with superabundance, with inexhaustible fruits. The testimonies of life in Christ and conversion are impressive.

~~7. Projects that promote the construction of social aid, associations and foundations.~~

All the social teachings of the Church are based on the gospel and on a conception of man as a builder of society, but always looking to his final transcendent destiny. Seen in this way, man, created by God and who will return to Him, can only manifest his love for the Creator, loving his neighbor and making his particular and unique contribution to the construction of a more prosperous, just, supportive and fully human society. This is why if the human being does not first experience a personal encounter with Jesus Christ, transforming his life, illuminating his mind and filling his heart with love, it will be difficult for him to persevere in his purpose of follow the principles and moral imperatives contained in social doctrine. The Charity of Christ urges us. (2Cor 5,14)

The Christian vocation has social implications since Jesus commanded us to continue his mission of spreading the kingdom of love, justice and peace.

The deplorable circumstances that the world is suffering require, as the social doctrine of the Church teaches us, the promotion of projects, associations and foundations, capable of defending human rights, the family, an economy at the service of man, an order that guarantees justice .

It requires a social commitment from us as coherent, tenacious and courageous Christians, not only from a deep spirituality, in a life of intimate union with Jesus but with concrete action, seeking justice, and promoting the law of love, bringing Christ to all. parts: "Pray and Work, as the Patron of Europe points out, a model in the evangelization of Europe in times of great heresies. " 187

This social commitment, expressed in the creation of associative projects, is the means to imbue our society today with great theological virtues - faith, hope and charity - in the exercise of this difficult task that lies ahead of us: building a society. close to the great provident project of God our Father.

8. Build a spiritual "Sanctuary of Mercy" to the Virgin Mary to help pilgrims, troubled people and shepherds

The pedagogy of Catholic doctrine explains the meaning of sanctuaries. They are places dedicated to the Virgin and the Holy Trinity, where the faithful are provided, in a more abundant way, with the means of salvation.

According to Christian revelation, the supreme and definitive sanctuary is the resurrected Christ <sup>188</sup> around which the community of disciples gathers and organizes, which in turn is the new house of the Lord. From a theological point of view, the Sanctuary <sup>189</sup>, which has emerged from a movement of popular piety, is a sign of the active, saving presence of the Lord in history and a refuge where the people of God, pilgrims along the roads of the world towards the future city, restores its strength to continue the march.

<sup>190</sup> The sanctuary has great symbolic value: it is an image of the "dwelling of God with men" (Rev 21:3) and refers to the "mystery of the Temple" that was realized in the body of Christ (Jn 1:14; 2,21), in the ecclesial community (1 Pet 2,5) and in each of the faithful.

Our beloved Mother invites us to conquer this "Sanctuary of Mercy", invoking the presence of Mary accompanied by the Holy Trinity, to give graces of: PHYSICAL, PSYCHIC AND SPIRITUAL SANCTION AND AWAKEN MANY TO THE TRUTH, in the face of the great apostasy. , and confusion prevailing in all spheres and disciplines. Where she, prophetess of the last times, and guide of her faithful and pilgrim church, will be present, spilling her miracles of grace, throughout the world, thus preparing the second coming of her son, in exile, before the beginning of the time of justice, of divine wrath, to unite his deported people, interceding for the Holy Spirit to be poured out, on his second Pentecost (THE WARNING and the MIRACLE) and the necessary strength to endure the trials. The Sanctuary will be the main building:

“In those days, the angel brought me back to the entrance of the temple of the Lord. Water flowed from beneath the threshold of the temple to the east—the temple faced east. The water flowed down the right side of the temple, south of the altar. He led me out through the north porch and took me outside to the outer porch that faces east. The water ran on the right side. The man with the string in his hand went out to the east, measured five hundred meters and led me through the water, which reached up to my ankles. He measured another five hundred meters and led me through the water, which was up to my knees. He measured another five hundred meters and made me cross the water, which was up to my waist. He measured another five hundred meters: it was now a torrent that could not be forded, but rather crossed by swimming.

divine, in the latter, together we build a spiritual "Sanctuary of Mercy", offering works of mercy that you can find on our website, our patron saint is Santiago the Apostle. In this capital of grace (offerings) that we give to the community virgin, we ask that she heal physically, mentally and spiritually, guide and strengthen the pilgrim church, protect it and awaken it in the truth, in the face of the great apostasy and confusion existing in all the disciplines of knowledge in this end of the last times.

Our project 199 wants to help, prepare and strengthen a pilgrim spirit at this time. Within the page you will find a training and informative guide with verified sources, about what is happening in the different disciplines, with more than 20 groups on Telegram, to train and make known the truth, which we will not see in official sources.

It agilely explains controversial topics of doctrine, biblical prophecies, charismas, healing and liberation, health, resource management, and much more, illuminating from faith, the present and future moment, so as not to have uncertainty and prepare us for what is ahead. to happen.

Conclusion

The pilgrimage to Santiago is a universal religious experience, it is assimilated to those of the Bible in which the pilgrimages of the patriarchs Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, to Shechem stand out (cf. Gen 12,6-7; 33,18-20), Bethel (cf. Gen 28,10-22; 35,1-15) and Mambré (Gn 13,18; 18,1-15), where God manifested himself to them and promised to give them the "promised land." .

The cathedral of Santiago is a place of invocation, the pilgrimage is a path of prayer. In each of the stages, prayer should encourage our walk and the word of God will be light, guide, food and support. The departure should be characterized by a period of prior intercession and the celebration of the Eucharist and a special blessing for the pilgrims. The last stage of the journey must be accompanied by more intense prayer, ending in confession and Eucharist.

The path symbolizes our walk in life, living is "an art", it is not an exact science, it involves taking risks, people prepared to quantify everything rigidly, and unable to withstand uncertainty, have a great disadvantage in facing it, just as which happens similar to the world of investment, of entrepreneurship and in the pedagogy of love.

Although studying races, writing, analyzing, knowing and experiencing situations can be important to gain experience, the Camino de Santiago is completely unpredictable, which is why it is advisable to travel small sections, 100km, 300km or 500km, training little by little, it is always advisable not to walk more than 15km/20km the first two days, to adapt the footwear.

You don't have to be fashionable to be successful, nor disagree with the world or the majority, but you do have to, with the will of Divine, to be able to find the hidden pearl.

We should not invest time in something we do not understand, but we should take our commitments seriously, prepare ourselves, without haste and without pause, praying, so as not to get lost in the confusion.

prevailing, we must risk what we are willing to lose and that includes enduring frustration, criticism, slander, from all those who do not think like us, knowing that growth will always be painful and that if we want the waters of the Nile and resurrect with Christ, we will have to follow him to Calvary.

The more I train, the luckier I get.
Arnold Palmer.

And if the pilgrim is an expert in the journey, in the management of change, how can we train ourselves to face something as big as a change of era? It is a very ambitious challenge, which is the mission of this book "to prepare your pilgrim spirit for a change of era", launching yourself on the Camino!

On this wonderful route that walkers from all over the world travel, a meeting place between all the peoples of the earth, the backbone of a European consciousness, it will train us to live with strength what awaits us.

To begin to walk, our attitude must be to trust!, to believe, knowing the difficulties that we will have to endure. We are not alone, we live with a provident God who never abandons us, and Saint James the Apostle, the first pilgrim, who will protect all our paths, everything is possible! if what we intend is in the Divine will.

The path in its demands will forge in us a new being, preparing us to endure much more than our minds can imagine. Our experience will be similar also that of Mary, when the desire of God made her flee from those who wanted to murder her child, leaving her homeless; even when I walk as a fugitive along deserted paths towards distant lands, with different customs; even when he kept her in the solitude of Nazareth, or made her accompany the Lord in his apostolic wanderings; even when he placed her at the foot of the cross next to the dying man-God. She was always standing there!

The path will teach us to live life with more courage and strength, as love and current times demand of us, understanding that this life is temporary.

To conclude, the Lord wanted to reveal what is going to happen to us, his prophets, so that we do not have uncertainty about what is about to happen, now that we are going to live in the darkest period of humanity.

For all of you who have come this far, He is calling you! to be his prophets and apostles in this end of the last times, to open the way for others who live in error, who suffer, to strengthen, prepare, relieve, console, bind up the wounds, form and correct, denouncing the cult that It is not accompanied by truth or justice.

We cannot live deceived in a false hope, passive, believing that we will see a time of prosperity, without doing anything, the Lord warns us that if not, the crisis will deepen for each of us, it is time for Mercy, let's take advantage of it! Let's join together to build a sanctuary of mercy, we can prepare many! By giving them this information, so that they wake up!, and return to grace and become stronger.

God never abandons his people, this is the basca that he is sending us, like Noah, he asks us to "Build an Ark", this time it is a Sanctuary with Mary, we must not lack hope in his great mercy, if we are repentant .

But it is necessary that we ask ourselves the question: are I prepared to leave everything when the Lord calls me?

Our prayer must be insistent, to be docile to his will, obeying God before men, to overcome the harsh trials to come.

"The angels said to Lot: —Hurry! Get up and take your wife and your two daughters away from here, if you don't want to die when we punish the city. Run, get safe! Don't look back, or stop at all in the valley. Go to the mountains, if you want to save your life. But Lot's wife, who was following him, looked back and there she was turned into a pillar of salt. Gen 19.15

Let us search insistently for him wherever we find him and let us move away from places and attitudes where he is not, discerning his will, to be able to hide until his anger passes, that will be our only security.201

While banks continue to ensure that we are always in debt, pharmaceutical companies ensure that we never stop being sick, the media ensure that we do not know the truth, and governments continue to ensure that everything else seems legal, the remnant church will resist the universal ecumenical church. and to the new world order, in this era dominated by satan.

WAKE UP!, do not be afraid, praise and worship, make a pilgrimage to Santiago, the spirit will come, the word of God will be fulfilled, we know that a third of humanity will enjoy new heavens and a new earth, it is written and word of God is life.

"It will come to pass that I will pour out my Spirit on all flesh, your children will prophesy, your old men will dream dreams, and your young men will see visions, even on the servants I will pour out my Spirit in those days. I will perform wonders in heaven and on earth, blood fire and columns of smoke. The sun will turn into darkness and the moon into blood, before the coming of Jesus, great and terrible. And everyone who calls on the name of God will be saved, because there will be survival on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem." Joel 3

Alarm on the day of Yahweh. Blow the trumpet in Zion, let the inhabitants of the country tremble, because the day of Yahweh is coming, a day of darkness and darkness! Return to me with all your heart with fasting and cries of mourning.
Joel 2.1

I am going to send you wheat, wine and oil until you are satisfied and I will no longer hand you over to dishonor. Joel 2.19.

Do not be afraid, jump for joy because Yahweh does mighty things. Joel 2.21

We are a project of God, we must conquer the originality of our personality, rediscovering our mission in this time, developing all our natural and supernatural potentialities. Promoting these projects and many others contributing to the construction of a "Sanctuary of El Camino de Santiago Mercy", spiritual to the Virgin Mary, to help our pilgrim church, the most troubled and especially the pastors, so the Lord will also have mercy on us.
